U.S. Naval Forces Rushed To Protect 'Spy' Planes

North Korea Insists On 'Violation'

Charges That U.S. 'Fled' Conference For Fear Of Truth

TOKYO (AP) — North Korea said today the United States "fled" from an armistice commission meeting at Panmunjom Friday because it feared "exposure of the truth" about its reconnaissance plane shot down in the Sea of Japan last Tuesday.

The declaration was made by Maj. Gen. Lee Choon-Sun North Korea's chief delegate to the meeting, who reiterated North Korea claims the U.S. Navy plane carrying 31 persons was downed after it violated Communist air space.

The United States, Lee said, was attempting "to reverse black and white" with statements that the plane was in international air space.

The North Korean Central News Agency broadcast Lee's statement. Lee also accused U.S. Air Force Maj. Gen. James B. Knapp, head of the U. N. Command delegation, of committing a "flagrant violation of the Korean armistice agreement" by walking out of the meeting.

KCNA said the walkout came 42 minutes after the meeting started when Lee pressed three times for identification of the unit which the downed reconnaissance plane was attached. "Finding himself in a fix where he could not escape the responsibility for this, the senior member of the enemy side let loose a whole string of robber-like sophistry in an attempt to justify the criminal act in sending a spy plane into the territorial air of our country on April 15," said Lee.

13 Job Corps Centers Given 'Close' Order

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration has ordered seven Job Corps centers to begin closing immediately and six others to start shutting down by May 1, a move likely to fan further resentment in Congress.

The swift action in the closing process came Friday, a week after Secretary of Labor George P. Shultz announced the 59 of the corps' 113 centers will be closed by July 1.

Sen. Alan Cranston, D-Calif., said the Office of Economic Opportunity notified the centers by telegram Friday. He already had announced that he would introduce a resolution next week providing "that no Job Corps installation be shut down until Congress completes its normal legislative and budgetary deliberations on this program."

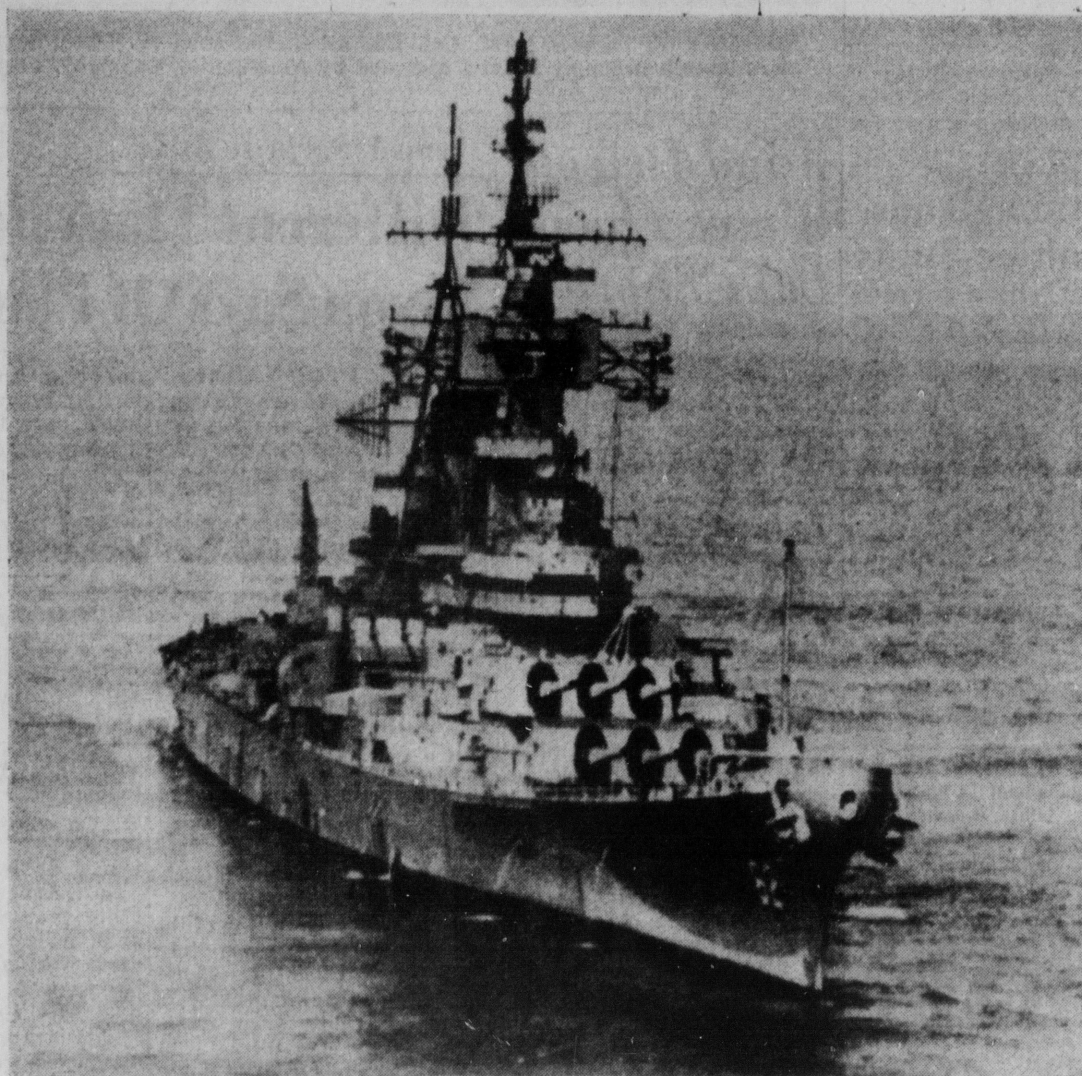

Bertrand M. Harding, acting OEO director, said all OEO contracts for Job Corps centers have 90-day termination clauses and the notices set the process in action. "There's not going to be any general locking of doors overnight," he said.

Installations listed for immediate closing are three in Puerto Rico—Guayama, Juana Diaz and Vieques—plus Camp Kilmer, N.J.; Oak Glen, Calif.; Marquette, Mich.; and Huntington, W. Va.

Scheduled to start shutdowns May 1 are the facilities at Clinton, Iowa; St. Louis; Poland Spring, Maine; Koko Head, Hawaii; Omaha, Neb.; and Moses Lake, Wash.

35 Feared Dead

TEHRAN (AP) — Thirty-five persons are feared drowned after a motorboat capsized off the coast of Kuwait Friday night, the newspaper Ayandegan reported today. The report said 16 passengers and crew members were rescued.

Armored Units In Action

U.S. Forces Claim Victory In Latest Duels With Cong

SAIGON (AP) — American armored units killed 100 North Vietnamese in two battles but lost at least four tanks and seven other armored vehicles, military spokesmen said today.

A day-long battle Friday 50 miles northwest of Saigon cost the 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment four tanks—two new 16-ton Sheridans and two 50-ton M48 tanks—plus seven killed and 28 wounded, field reports said.

Later Friday night, three armored personnel carriers were destroyed by fire and four other tracked vehicles were badly damaged when North Vietnamese sappers attacked a "wagon train" circle of tanks and personnel carriers three miles southeast of the demilitarized zone.

Despite the loss of the tanks in the first battle, armored cavalry officers called it a victory. They said 82 enemy bodies were found after the battle.

"It was a good lesson for Charlie. He learned he can't mess around with the Sheridans and get away with it," said Col. Jimmie Leach of Hampton, N.C., commander of the 11th Regiment.

The fighting erupted when units of the regiment ran into a North Vietnamese ambush in Tay Ninh province. The Sheridan tanks, artillery and helicopter gunships pounded the enemy for most of the day.

Maj. John Bronson of Rockledge, Ga., a squadron commander, said the first rocket grenade was fired prematurely by the North Vietnamese attackers "and that enabled us to get them before they could carry out the rest of the ambush."

The 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment and a squadron of the 25th Division are the only two units in Vietnam equipped with Sheridan tanks, which have been undergoing combat evaluation since they arrived in mid-February. So far 10 have been destroyed and several have been damaged in action.

Associated Press correspondent Robert Ohman reported from Cam Lo that 13 Americans were killed and 24 were wounded in the other surprise attack against a defensive circle set up by 9th Regiment Marines and supporting armor of the 1st Brigade, 5th Mechanized Infantry Division.

Rocket-grenades knocked out

three armored personnel carriers in the first minutes of the battle, clearing a path for enemy sappers who raced through and hurled satchel charges at three tanks and 17 other APCs.

Helicopter gunships laid a ring of fire around the embattled troops until a second troop of tanks and APCs arrived. Then the North Vietnamese withdrew.

A later sweep of the battlefield turned up 13 North Vietnamese dead.

U.S. military spokesmen reported today that North Vietnamese troops have built a series of big concrete gun emplacements into mountainsides along the South Vietnam-Laos border to fire on American and South Vietnamese special forces camps and bases.

The guns are mounted on railroad tracks and protected by

Trip To Asia Pondered

'Plan To Travel A Lot,' President Tells Editors

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon, who hasn't shown the slightest reluctance to travel since taking office, has told members of the American Society of Newspaper Editors he hopes to do a lot more of it—even possibly to Asia.

"We're going to try and get there," was a frequent remark of the President's as he greeted editors from around the nation Friday night during black tie reception at the White House.

A. A. Smyser, editor of the Honolulu Star Bulletin said Nixon told him "he will come the first chance he gets." Nixon later said he had no specific plans on that but Hawaii will be a stop "if I can take a trip to Asia."

A trip to Colorado this summer was "a possibility" the President told reporters.

More immediately, Nixon said he intended to be in Norfolk, Va., next Saturday. His daughter, Tricia, has been chosen 16th queen of the International Azalea Festival.

"I'm going to crown my daughter—unless we have a crisis," the President said.

The editors were ending a week-long session in Washington.

Homes, Buildings Hit By Florida Tornado

MAITLAND, Fla. (AP)—A tornado cut a path of destruction through Maitland and a man drowned off a wind-swamped boat in Orlando today as a growling line of thunderstorms bulled through this Central Florida area.

The body of 23-year-old David M. Dolon was recovered several hours after a boat capsized on Lake Ivanhoe. Five other persons swam to shore and another who clung to the boat was rescued.

The tornado, lashing out of the parade of thunderstorms, collapsed homes and buildings, knocked out power lines, and blocked streets with fallen trees as it skipped through Maitland, touching down three times.

New Jersey, 2 Carriers With Units

Nixon Takes Steps To Back Up Pledge Of 'Protection'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Potent U.S. naval forces, including the battleship New Jersey and possibly a pair of aircraft carriers, were reported steaming to new positions today to provide protection for American intelligence missions off North Korea.

The Pentagon announced redeployment of extensive forces Friday shortly after President Nixon ordered resumption of reconnaissance flights with the promise they will cease to be "fair game" for North Korean jets.

Flights off the North Korean coast were halted Tuesday after an EC121 reconnaissance plane with 31 men aboard apparently was shot down. Only two bodies have been found in the Sea of Japan where the craft fell.

Redeployment of the naval forces was viewed as a protective step rather than a threat of retaliation against North Korea.

The New Jersey, which had been scheduled to arrive in Long Beach, Calif., today after duty off Vietnam, was ordered to turn around and return to the Western Pacific.

While no announcement was made of the strategy to be used in providing protection for the reconnaissance planes, indications were fighters would be stationed where they could come to the swift rescue of any threatened U.S. aircraft. Fighters would be kept in the air during intelligence missions, but not flying wing-to-wing with the reconnaissance aircraft.

Except for the New Jersey, the Pentagon did not say what ships were involved and the announcement stopped short of specifying the new positions actually were in the Sea of Japan. A Defense Department spokesman said only the redeployment involved "a number of different types of vessels."

One carrier believed on the way to the Sea of Japan is the USS Kittyhawk which carries 90 warplanes. The Kittyhawk left Hong Kong with two destroyers earlier this week without any announcement of its destination.

In ordering resumption of the intelligence flights, Nixon pronounced them vital to the security of U.S. troops stationed in South Korea.

Nixon revealed for the first time that the United States is capable of "reading" radar pictures of another country from miles away.

He said both showed that the EC121 was 90 miles offshore—well outside North Korean territory—when shot down.

Military experts said the crew of the EC121 would not have been alarmed immediately by the presence of MIGs, since the North Korean fighters routinely fly over them over international water. The sources said the extensive electronic gear on the plane also would have been concentrating on monitoring North Korean radio tracking rather than watching for approaching aircraft.

Cold Weather Due For Area After Storm

Colder weather, with intermittent rain and snow, is due this evening for the tri-state area in the wake of the rain and wind which struck Friday evening.

Today's high will be in the 40s and tonight's low in the middle 30s.

It will begin turning warmer Sunday, with the high in the 50s.

Increasing cloudiness and warmer is the outlook for Monday.

4 Die, 24 Injured In Apartment Fire

ATLANTIC CITY (AP) — A fire that began on a kitchen stove swept two floors of a luxury, high-rise apartment building Friday night, claiming four lives and injuring 24 others.

Residents of the 12-story Brighton Towers worked to salvage their damaged belongings from their gutted apartments today.

With aerial ladders and fighting a light rainfall, firemen made spectacular rescues from upper floors of the aluminum and glass structure in downtown Atlantic City, only three blocks from the famed Boardwalk.

MANY tenants fled in nightclothes and slippers.

No estimate was made of the damage. The building was said to have cost $3.5 million when constructed in 1964.

Two of the victims were found in the rubble of an elevator stalled between the sixth and seventh floors. Another victim was taken from the 10th floor elevator where she was overcome by smoke.

The dead were identified as Mrs. Marie Falgout, 43, Miss Judith Stout, 25, a nurse at Atlantic City Hospital, and Mrs. Marie Andisman, age unknown, who authorities said died of a heart attack.

Identification of the fourth victim was not immediately determined.

Dr. Hayakawa Speaks In Chicago

Use Of Police Advocated To Halt Campus Disorder

CHICAGO (AP) — The acting president of San Francisco State College, Dr. S. I. Hayakawa, says many college professors condemn violence by police but condone violent actions by students.

The man who took a firm stand against disruption on the California campus that was wracked by violence earlier this year urged that college faculties overcome what he termed prejudice against policemen and, instead, support the use of police to quell campus disorders.

Hayakawa addressed Chicago's Executive Club's weekly luncheon meeting Friday and drew a standing ovation at the conclusion of his remarks.

The 1,800 business and professional men, as well as a few wives, also applauded when Hayakawa said:

"He will insist that disturbances be put down."

"Police should not allow on a campus a disorder they would not permit at an airport."

"Academic freedom is the central issue of these times at colleges."

Hayakawa said radical students are making an energetic effort to suppress freedom of speech.

He said that when Negro students create disturbances they have definite goals of improving their people in mind, but, he added, "White radicals have nothing but desperation and revolution in mind."

France And Kuwait

Back U.N. Principles

PARIS (AP) — France and oil-rich Kuwait issued a joint communique today agreeing that any peace in the Middle East must conform to the principles of the United Nations.

The communique capped the four-day visit of the crown prince of Kuwait, Sheikh Jaber Al-Ahmed Al-Jaber Al-Sabah. The sheikh conferred with President Charles de Gaulle, Premier Maurice Couve de Murville, Foreign Minister Michel Debre and Defense Minister Pierre Messmer.

25 Trustees 'Locked In' In New Campus Protest

By The Associated Press

Demonstrating students kept 25 trustees locked in a conference room at Atlanta University Center today but protests were ended or suspended at several other major campuses.

Harvard students voted to suspend their strike for seven days after the university agreed to reduce the status of the Reserve Officers Training Corp to an extra-curricular activity. Stanford University protesters ended a nine-day sit-in at an electronics lab.

A new protest by a breakaway group of Students for a Democratic Society at Columbia University fizzled when it failed to get any widespread support.

The dissidents at Atlanta University Center, a six-college complex, were demanding that the schools be renamed for Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and that white trustees resign.

One of those locked in was Dr. Hugh M. Gloster, president of Morehouse College, King's alma mater and part of the complex. He said he would resign rather than accede to the demands under duress.

The Rev. Martin Luther King Sr., a Morehouse trustee, walked out of the room Friday declaring his family wanted no part of the tactics protesters were using in seeking to honor his slain son.

In Cambridge, Mass., a mass meeting of 3,500 Harvard students voted 2-1 to suspend the eight-day strike touched off by the arrest of 200 sit-ins at the administration building.

However, SDS members and about 150 black students seeking a large voice in setting up a black studies program, said they would continue the class boycott. Harvard has about 15,000 students, of whom 6,000 are undergraduates.

The strike suspension came after the Harvard Corporation, a seven-man governing board which with the Overseers sets long-range policy, generally endorsed a faculty motion reducing ROTC to extra-curricular status.

Stanford's sit-in was ended when university President Kenneth S. Pitzer agreed to keep the building closed to all but maintenance personnel for one week. The students said they would meet again April 26 to decide further moves.

The sit-ins had been protesting military-connected research at the Applied Electronics Laboratory.

At Columbia the latest sit-in was held by dissident members of the SDS who divided over tactics with their fellow radicals. After six hours in Hamilton Hall they left commenting, "Tactically, we made a mistake."

The regular SDS group wants to concentrate on "open enrollment" for Negro graduates of city high schools while the splinter group seeks an end to the ROTC program.

Wind-Driven Water Floods Lake Shore

SANDUSKY, Ohio (AP) — Flooding from Lake Erie due to strong winds forced the evacuation of some 50 homes and flooded another 150 along 25 miles of Erie County Lake shore, the Red Cross reported late Friday night.

No one was reported injured as water driven by 50-mile-per-hour winds flooded basements, washed out roads and deposited lake debris at points including Bayview, Cedar Point, Venice, Rye Beach, Whites Landing and Crystal Rock.

Albert Gongs, director of the Firelands Red Cross Chapter in Sandusky, said many of the homes were used only in the summer. He said evacuated families were spending the night with relatives or friends.

The Cedar Point Road was reported washed out for two miles with water up to two feet covering it. Several beach cabanas were reported to have been washed away in the area.

One evacuated trailer in Venice was reported to be almost covered by water.

In Vermilion in western Lorain County, workers sandbagged homes against water driven by eight and nine foot waves Vermilion Lagoon.

The Vermilion River was reported to have washed over its banks and flooded basements of several homes but police reported no evacuations.

The coast guard station at Marblehead in Ottawa County reported the weather forecast for Lake Erie called for winds ranging from 36 to 45 miles per hour Friday night and early Saturday, then dropping off to 20 m.p.h.

Several lake points, including Vermilion, reported heavy rains. Many trees were reported down in coastal areas in Huron County.

Termed 'Surprise Attack' 'Different Than Pueblo,' Nixon Says Of Plane Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon says the shooting down of a U.S. reconnaissance plane this week "was a completely surprise attack," presenting a different crisis than that faced by President Lyndon Johnson when the USS Pueblo was seized.

Haunted perhaps by a campaign taunt in which he referred to North Korea as "a fourth rate military power," Nixon drew some distinctions Friday between the two incidents.

In his campaign for president last year, Nixon promised he would not allow the nation to suffer another dilemma such as the Jan. 23, 1968, capture of the intelligence ship Pueblo by North Korean patrol boats.

Faced with the downing of the Navy intelligence plane this week, Nixon has chosen—as did Johnson—to follow a course of diplomacy rather than retaliation.

But, Nixon told a White House news conference, the two incidents are not parallel.

He said the Pueblo was threatened in advance. Had there been a similar threat against reconnaissance flights over the Sea of Japan, Nixon said, he would have ordered protective action.

The Pueblo seizure, Nixon said, "was quite different in two respects."

"One, there was some uncertainty for some time as to where the Pueblo was. Present indications are that the Pueblo was in international waters. But there was some uncertainty."

Nixon said there was never any doubt as to the location of the intelligence plane—at least 28 miles outside Korean airspace at its closest approach to the Communist nation.

"Also," he said, "in the case of the Pueblo, the North Koreans had warned and threatened the Pueblo for a period of weeks before they seized it."

He said flights like the one the Koreans shot down have been going on for years without incident.

"Under these circumstances," Nixon said, "it was a completely surprise attack in every sense of the word and therefore

Man, Wife Grilled For Any Spy Ties

LONDON (AP) — An American described as an amiable "country club" type in his 50s with a slight East European accent was being interrogated with his wife Friday night by a Scotland Yard counter-espionage squad.

No charges were filed against the couple and authorities would not disclose their identities or any details of the case.

Senior officials of the U.S. Embassy went to Scotland Yard for discussions with the detectives. British police said they checked with the U.S. Federal Bureau of Investigation before the raid.

More than 50 detectives headed by Scotland Yard Commander Ferguson Smith closed in on the lavish home in the stockbroker belt of London's southern suburbs where the couple lived with their three children.

In 1961 Smith arrested Morris and Lola Cohen, an American couple who were exposed as Soviet spies and jailed for 20 years.

One published report said the couple presently being questioned may originally have been of German nationality but now had U.S. passports. Another report said the raid on their house came as a result of statements made by an East German who had defected to the West.

Neighbors said the couple returned Friday from the United States. They said the police had been watching the house for the past two weeks.

Area's Libraries To Mark Annual Week Observance

Special displays are planned at the East Liverpool Carnegie Public Library starting Monday in observance of "National Library Week," Mrs. Beatrice Davidson, librarian, announced.

Gov. James Rhodes has officially proclaimed the observance, calling attention to the need to keep library resources in pace with steadily increasing needs. He also cited the benefits derived from the educational and research services of professional librarians and staffs.

It was pointed out 70 of the 88 counties in Ohio spend less per person for library services than the cost of an average book, and 60 per cent of the library books are in nine counties.

The city library and others in the district may offer more books and services if the General Assembly approves a bill on major revision of library legislation, Mrs. Davidson said.

The bill, calling for the first major changes in the field in 22 years, is based on a two-year study of Ohio's libraries and a plan drawn up by more than 2,000 librarians.

The proposed legislation provides the basis for long-range improvement in services and better use of existing library and information resources.

The bill would enable all of Ohio's 259 public libraries to guarantee essential services through cooperative programs, and lay the basis for Area Library Service Organizations to enable libraries in two or more counties to band together to bring more adequate service to their areas.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — While John Bockey was in the den writing checks to pay a batch of bills, the doorbell rang and it was answered by his daughter, Mary.

"No," replied his daughter, "he's just got a plain old nose."

YEAST AND YOUR SEPTIC TANK

Dating from Biblical days, yeast has been one of nature's most valuable aids, yet was an enigma. Yeast's ability to create reactions in hops and other fermentable materials was a mystery which baffled chemists over the centuries, and only in recent years have our modern scientists discovered that yeast cells produce enzymes which affect starches and sugars, creating alcohol as one of the end products. This is why yeast is so invaluable to the brewing industry.

Yeast also has many other uses, such as the leavening of bread, etc., and, in the past, has been used widely as an aid to the operation of septic tanks. Even today, many rural home owners persist in the addition of yeast to their sewage systems.

To understand the effect of yeast on a sewage system, it must be clearly understood that THE ENZYMES IN YEAST WILL ONLY WORK ON STARCHES AND SUGARS. In the early part of this century, home baking and canning contributed greatly to the starch and sugar content of sewage waste, and the addition of yeast was of some definite advantage. However, today's housewife purchases most of her bread, cake and canned foods from the market and studies of the nature of today's waste show a marked INCREASE in fats and greases, with a DECREASE in sugars and starches. The addition of quantities of yeast to today's system can actually create problems, since with nothing to work on, the yeast will pass into the drainage areas and create a clogging condition. Yeast also creates a gaseous condition which prevents the sewage from settling in the tank, and uses up valuable oxygen, necessary to bacterial digestion.

Today's smart homeowner uses SEA-CAL ENZYMES to correct and prevent sewage problems. Scientifically developed for today's waste systems, SEA-CAL contains the correct balance of enzymes to maintain top operating efficiency in septic tank and cesspool systems. SEA-CAL is the MODERN treatment for MODERN sewage systems.

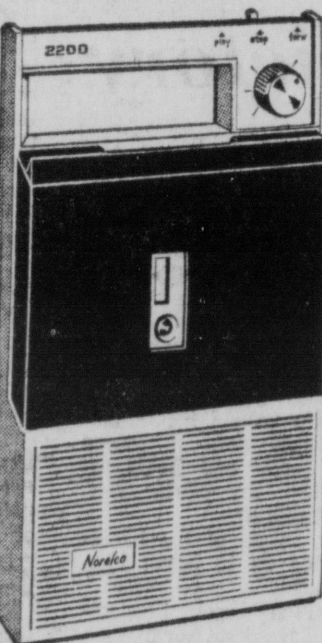

IMPORTANT!!!!!! FOR THE BEST PROTECTION DURING SPRING, DOUBLE YOUR SEA-CAL TREATMENTS, PARTICULARLY WHERE TANKS ARE UNDER SIZED OR ARE SUBJECT TO OVERLOADS AND/OR AMOUNTS OF DETERGENTS AND BLEACHES.

2 Appear Voluntarily In Secret Indictments

LISBON — Two young men indicted secretly Thursday by the Columbiana County Grand Jury came to the Courthouse voluntarily Friday afternoon.

James T. Criss Jr., 23, of 220 Lee Ave. Lisbon, was released after making $1,000 surety bond on a charge of traffic manslaughter.

Matt I. Marcum, 29, of Glenmoor, charged with assault with a dangerous weapon (shotgun) Jan. 13 on David Lee Hoppel, was committed to the county jail in default of $2,500 bond.

The defendants will be arraigned April 28 before Judge Raymond S. Buzzard, who will preside for criminal trials this term of court. He set the bonds yesterday.

Criss was indicted in connection with the death of his companion and passenger, Charles E. Hutcheson, 23, of Grant St., Lisbon, in a two-car crash Feb. 6 on Route 45, north of here.

The indictment lists reckless operation, left of center and speeding as violations that led to the fatal accident. Hutcheson died Feb. 10 in Youngstown South Side Hospital.

Across the hall yesterday, Judge Joel H. Sharp reduced from $10,000 to $2,500 bond for James Criss, 54, of 220 Lee Ave., to await arraignment on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon.

Criss was indicted by the January Grand Jury in connection with the shooting of Glenndon Ikirt, 49, of Pleasant Heights, Jan. 6 at the fairgrounds. The defendant has been in Massillon State Hospital on a committal order signed Jan. 10 by Probate Judge Louis Tobin.

The hospital superintendent advised Sheriff Russell J. Van Fossan that Criss may be returned for a trial visit and the sheriff brought the defendant home yesterday. His family posted a $2,500 property bond for his release.

Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis agreed to the request for reduction in bond from defense counsel, Robert Hartford of East Palestine.

Education Program A Casualty

The decision by Gov. James A. Rhodes to back away from the tax-education package during this session of the General Assembly is the best example of the present mood of Ohioans regarding taxes as you are likely to find.

The expand education program with special attention devoted to development of technical-vocational education for Ohio students has no more enthusiastic supporter than Gov. Rhodes.

HE HAS BEEN beating the drums all over the state in behalf of vocational-technical training for students who do not wish a college education.

We have supported the governor's position and still believe it will have to be implemented before Ohio can say it is providing a comprehensive education program for all its students.

A lot of Ohioans share the view held by Gov. Rhodes.

The crunch comes in getting the money to pay for the massive vocational education program.

Taxpayers have had it up to the ears with new taxes. Gov. Rhodes read public opinion correctly and decided it would be better to come back with the program later than to get it knocked off by legislators who are being told by the folks back home to "forget new taxes."

The couple of proposed bills that call for a mandatory income tax are going to have tough sledding also.

Animosity is directed toward taxation, not education, and any tax measure is not going to be popular.

Finance Director Howard L. Collier said a comprehensive study of the state's finances will be completed before any new administration taxes are proposed.

IT IS SAD but true that the taxpayers' dissatisfaction includes federal taxes but they can only bring pressure to bear on local and state tax measures—those which would provide the largest degree of benefit for their state and community.

The education program is a casualty of growing taxpayer disenchantment.

Anti-SDS Movement Takes Shape

A new phase in campus unrest is beginning to take form and it could be the best thing that has happened to the right of dissent in a long time.

Students formerly apathetic to violent, disruptive actions of campus activists have started a counterrevolution.

Their aim is to thwart activities of organizations like Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) when their campaigns to remake universities resort to violence or interrupt the learning process of other students.

SDS chapters on various campuses around the country share a common goal — pull down the system. Current attacks on Reserve Officers Training Corps (ROTC) at a variety of universities is an example of a coordinated program.

Students like the several hundred Kent State University fraternity members who demonstrated in behalf of the administration this week are fed up with SDS activists.

Harvard students protested mob takeover of the university's administration building by burning an effigy representing the SDS.

The anti-SDS movement will no doubt grow if members of the militant student organization persist in the use of illegal and violent tactics.

Since the anti-SDS crusade is in its early stages, it is difficult to assess its impact. However, it appears that it is not meant to squelch dissent as such but to protest methods.

Some of the students lined up against campus revolutionaries share some of the concerns of their adversaries, but they do not believe that reform will come through destruction.

They don't want the right of dissent to suffer because of an overreaction to SDS outbursts that would bring about a police-state atmosphere on campus with stringent regulations aimed at a few students but affecting all students.

If anti-SDS students are able to bring off their program, they will be striking a blow in defense of dissent.

High Cost Of Medical Care

"Physicians are not always available when and where they are needed; costs are rising more rapidly than in any other sector of the economy; care is unevenly distributed; hospitals, often obsolete, duplicate each other's services. In short, the system is not operating smoothly."

These are not the judgments of an alien critic. The quotation is from Harvard Today, written by Dr. Robert H. Ebert, dean of Harvard's Medical School.

The American Medical Association in a two-day meeting opening in Chicago Friday will take up "the financial realities and problems of health care changing cost-price patterns, and health care financing in the 1970s."

The AMA News notes that the cost of health care rose in January to 150.2 per cent of the 1957-59 average. This was an increase of 0.7 from the previous month and a rise of 6.4 per cent from January 1968. In the same year the consumer price index as a whole rose 4.7 per cent.

to pool costs and equipment. Since 1962, the Hospital Association estimates, there have been 96 hospital mergers. The first half of 1968 alone saw 20 of these marriages of convenience.

As Harvard's Dean Ebert was quick to point out: "Science and methodology have made it possible to treat more and more diseases successfully, to prevent others and to prolong life. This progress has also profoundly complicated the practice of medicine and significantly altered the physician's role." It has tremendously increased the sheer burden of medical costs.

It has greatly added to the pressure for hospital beds and space in nursing homes. It has prompted a growing trend toward—usually more costly—specialization of practice.

To some rather minor extent doctors have been able to ease the burden on patients by group practice arrangements. Congress in 1966 authorized Federal Housing Administration insurance for equipment and financing of group medical, optometrical and dental practice.

BUT MUCH OF THE HEAVIER expense is accounted for by doctors' fees. The U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare in a recent report put average net profits of all physicians in 1966 at $25,600. This was as against average net profit of $8,625 reported in 1945.

Dr. H. H. Trimble, in Texas Medicine, suggests that doctors recommend hospitalization only when necessary—and not just because health insurance will pay for it—and exercise restraint in the fees they charge. Significantly, he suggests that if the medical profession polices itself, "we can prevent third parties from controlling our method of practice."

Musings From Max

By MARTIN MILLER

Let us pause for a moment and offer a bit of sympathy to major league pitchers who are starting this year's work with two strikes on them—a lower pitching mound and a smaller strike zone.

Everything is supposed to be getting easier these days but here are the pitchers with a tougher task in getting the ball where it belongs. The pitchers' loss is the batters' gain.

Our team is still losing.

Always trying to be ahead of its time, this department recommends the establishment now of a planning commission for space before it becomes overcrowded and starts deteriorating.

There always are thousands of pieces of "garbage" floating around out there, the parts of rockets and satellites which were launched in recent years.

Now plans are to put platforms and vehicles out in space and build on them in a haphazard manner. Don't wait. Set up a zoning commission for space immediately. Tomorrow may be too late.

Space isn't limitless, is it?

Meanwhile, back here in the dooryard on earth the birds scream at the cat every time she ventures within view. And the cat reciprocates, naturally, by flattening her ears back against her head, snarling and lashing her tail about in a fearsome manner. Neither side has made a move toward a lasting peace.

Communists prevented a Czech chess master who had criticized the regime from going to Britain to participate in a chess tournament. But then, if memory serves, the United States upon occasion has refused to issue a passport to a dissident or two to travel to a communist country.

Student violence on campuses at last seems to have stirred up a backlash from the so-called Establishment. Several educators have finally joined the fray for law and order.

Here is a quote from a new book, "College Curriculum and Student Protest" by Joseph J. Schwab: The few student violence leaders are "... vicious demagogues and corn-belt storm troopers bent on attaining a following by kicking their father surrogates in the teeth. ... They combine ignorance of worldly conditions handicaps of appearance and manner, considerable native ability and equally considerably interpersonal incompetence in such a fashion as to produce an enormous greed for power and prestige, an infinite capacity for generating righteous indignation, and the entirely correct conviction that only the destruction of public faith in legality and the shattering of social order will produce the success to which they are sure they are entitled."

Great Britain may be going down hill on a fast freight but the British are still in there pitching. A bunch of them recently tried to ski 470 miles to the North Pole, presumably simply because it is there, like a mountain. With temperatures as low as 58 below zero they covered 90 miles before they gave up and were picked up by a plane. Better to have tried to ski to the North Pole and failed than never to have tried at all. Hm-m-m.

Next time you read that civilization is man against nature just remember that man is part of nature. That is what the book said. I can't figure it out, either.

'Just Keep It Warmed Up?'

VICTOR RIESEL

Black Panthers Roam Free

NEW YORK — East Side, West Side, all around this garbage-strewn town, teachers have been whipped, robbed and hounded; their cars looted and stripped; their classrooms blackened with the smoke of arsonists' fires; their supervisors and principals terrorized and forced out; their leaders harassed by horror squads, and parents of their young students threatened with violent death.

Victor Riesel

And this is understatement. If the United Federation of Teachers (AFL-CIO), America's largest local union, hits this city with a fourth strike, let the record here disclose the travail and heartaches of its 57,000 members. But for the grace of fate this could be the story of any group of the nation's 50 million youngsters, 2 million teachers and professional staff people and 100,000 school board members.

Let the record show that at this moment there are 47 principals and assorted supervisors who have been driven from their schools by tiny, centrally controlled, bands of terrorists — generally calling themselves Black Panthers. These hit-and-ruin squads harass supervisors and teachers of all races, colors and creeds.

THE INVADING BANDS have driven off black instructors. Two "Panthers" threatened to kill a courageous Puerto Rican parent leader, Mrs. Georgina Hoggard, if she bucked their efforts to take over the schools in her district — P.S. 34 and P.S. 60. This fiery lady is fighting back and willingly put her charge on tape for me.

Many of the roving bands emanate from some of the antipoverty community action agencies here, according to the Council of Supervisory Associations (school principals, etc.).

In effect, the terrorists carry a big pork barrel. They want the jobs for their allies. If the principals don't take the truly bloody hint, the extremists move in. At one school, they pushed a desk into the principal's office, nailed a sign on the wall above it reading "principal," installed one of their own and physically drove the legal principal out of the building.

Now he is with the 46 other high officials — sitting idly in the Board of Education's central office over in Brooklyn, or filling in at schools where regular principals are ill or on sabbatical. Or doing glorified clerical work somewhere in the system.

The supervisors organization and the teachers union — forgetting class lines — fight back in a united front.

"Five or six people can walk into a school," says United Federation of Teachers 40-year-old president Al Shanker, "and take over. Thus unqualified persons get the principals' jobs. They know that their tactics can force the central Board of Education to hand out $20,000 to $30,000 jobs just under this sort of pressure alone."

What pressure?

THERE IS THE typical case of one principal in the residential borough of Queens — not generally the center of extremist action. The lives of this principal and his family were threatened. He was assaulted and abused on racial and religious grounds. His car was vandalized twice. Then he was robbed at knife point. The local police captain warned he was a marked man. He left the school.

Another principal, a woman, was told by the militants she would enter the school only over their "dead bodies." Then the extremists physically barred the doors. She was moved in by the police, who forcibly removed the Panthers from the entrance. She's fighting back. Not for long, probably.

Another principal was told not to return — or his blood would flow in the streets outside the school. He did not return.

Thus reads the case histories of most of the 47 principals, assistant principals and supervisors.

Recently a New York State Dept. of Education observer was badly beaten. He quit observing.

IT IS JUST as grim for the teachers. The special "overseer" commission appointed to end the first strike reports 500 cases of justifiable complaints of terror. Some weeks ago, two teachers were heading for their cars. The roving band got to them. They had been warned not to report. One instructor was knocked down, kicked and then whipped by the metal radio antenna ripped from his car.

Thus — the exodus across the Hudson River. Al Shanker, still resilient, reports that thousands of New York teachers are applying for jobs as far west as San Francisco.

By next September, he expects a deficit of 23,500 teachers in this city. There now are 400 teacherless classrooms. The old reservoir of 3,000 substitutes has evaporated. For example, out of the original 350 who were in the controversial ghetto area known as Ocean Hill-Brownville, only 60 remain.

"This fall we face the greatest exodus of any cultural groups this country has seen," says Shanker. "We expect that 20,000 will not return to the system after the summer holiday. There are daily school-by-school incidents inflamed by extremists who move in and demand the ouster of principals and teachers. We may have to strike, though we know that another strike would just hasten the exodus of white and black teachers from this city."

This may be the year of the Panther — some of its defectors call it a black Klu Klux Klan. If it is such a year, men such as Mr. Shanker and his colleagues fear it will be the beginning of the era of the death of mass education in our land for youngsters of all races, colors and creeds — East coast, West coast, all around the country.

Berry's World

DAVID LAWRENCE

The Risks Of War

WASHINGTON — Wishful thinkers have been saying that there's no danger of American involvement in any more wars and that people in this country need not worry about what is happening overseas.

But suddenly the shooting down of an American airplane by North Korea at a point at least 50 miles from its coast, with the loss of crewmen aboard, is a grim reminder that America's enemies have by no means abandoned their evil ways.

It is a flagrant violation of international law for any plane flying over the high seas to be shot down many miles from a seacoast. Aircraft and ships, armed or unarmed, have the right to travel across oceans without being subject to attack. Reconnaissance planes and ships of the Soviet Union are constantly cruising much closer than 50 miles away from our own Pacific Coast.

IF WANTON ATTACKS continue, it will become more important for the United States to seek an immediate agreement with the Communist countries on freedom of the seas and the air than to concentrate on talks about keeping nuclear weapons from being manufactured by nonnuclear countries.

As Sen. Everett Dirksen of Illinois, Republican leader, has just said, there is no reason to advocate military reprisal at present. But it is imperative that the problem raised by the attack on our airplane by the North Koreans be dealt with promptly by "negotiations."

Sen. Strom Thurmond, Republican of South Carolina, thinks a naval fleet should be sent at once to the area where the plane was downed. Chairman Mendel Rivers of the House Armed Services Committee favors immediate retaliation.

Unfortunately, parleys with the North Koreans have proved fruitless, as happened when the "Pueblo," an American naval vessel, was seized and her crew imprisoned and tortured for several months last year.

The all-important fact is that back of North Korea is either Red China or the Soviet Union or both. There would be no deliberate creation of tension if it were not for the influence of the Communist regimes in Moscow or Peking.

The United States government will be faced with more and more episodes threatening an entanglement in war unless the Soviets and the Red Chinese realize the danger of allowing their puppet allies — like North Korea — to stir up trouble at will.

The Communist strategy back of it all is, of course, obvious. The idea is that, if the United States can become embroiled in another war with North Korea, the American government would find itself compelled to spend larger and larger sums of money and perhaps divert its troops from the war in Southeast Asia.

Japan has thus far stayed aloof from the Vietnam conflict but it would appear logical that Japan would join America in a plan to assure peace in the Far East. Australia and The Philippines would surely do likewise.

The Red Chinese are the ones who will lose a great deal by their encouragement of the North Koreans. The United States, in recent months, has been urged by many groups in this country to "build bridges of friendship" with the people of Red China.

But the latest trouble with North Korea will discourage such efforts unless some way can be found to get Peking to co-operate in restraining further acts of aggression.

It is doubtful whether North Korea would take any step — especially the seizure of an American warship or the shooting down of a reconnaissance plane — without a previous understanding with Moscow or Peking.

THE WHOLE SITUATION is indicative of the risks of war that are prevalent in different parts of the world. Certainly there will not be a diminution but an increase in crises if the United States appears irresolute or indifferent to attacks on its own ships and planes.

What is ironic is that the United Nations, which was supposed to rehabilitate the battered principles of international law and set up a system of collective security in the world, failed to take action in the "Pueblo" affair or in setting the Vietnam War.

One wonders how many more acts of aggression will be committed against American ships and planes in international waters before the U.N. will decide to do something about it.

MOMENT OF MEDITATION
The Bride Of Christ
"Husbands love your wives even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish." Eph. 5:25-27.
In the preceding verses the Apostle Paul uses the husband and wife relationship to point out some very important facts about Christ and His church. First, it can be clearly seen that as a husband is to have just one wife, so Christ has just one bride or church. Surely no one will accuse Christ of bigamy. The Bible nowhere gives authority for the many churches that exist. Christ only built one. (Mt. 16:18) He has only one bride!
The charge is commonly made that when a person contends for just one church he is narrow minded and thinks he is the only one right and everyone else is wrong. This charge is false. To the contrary, the Bible is right and when we differ with God and His Word, we are wrong. The Bible teaches clearly for all to see, that Jesus has just one church or body. Eph. 4:4. For us to contend otherwise puts us in direct opposition to God and His Word. Modern denominationalism as we have it today, did not even exist in the days of the Apostles. Christ built one church and the Apostles and brethren went about trying to get men and women everywhere to accept Christ and to become a part of the one body of Christ. Paul was not interested in one church and Peter interested in another. John did not urge people to become a part of some human denomination. They all worked together in an effort to exalt Christ and His church. When Philip went preaching to the people of Samaria, he preached unto them, Christ. In telling them about Christ, he told them about the kingdom of Christ. (Acts 8:5; Acts 8:12) Notice that Philip did not tell them to go join the "kingdom" of your choice. He told them about one kingdom and they believed him and were baptized into that kingdom. The kingdom and the church are the same thing. (Mt. 16:18, 19). Thus, these people did not become a part of any denomination but they became members of the Church of Christ. He only had one church for them to be members of.
In our article today we have seen that the church is referred to as the bride of Christ. He only has one bride. The church is called the body of Christ. He only has one body. The church is referred to as the kingdom. Christ is a king over His Kingdom. Are you in Christ's church?

giant steel doors, the spokesmen said.

They added that three such batteries were reported damaged or disabled by recent American air strikes. But the spokesmen said the gun emplacements are defended by anti-aircraft fire, making aerial observation and attacks extremely hazardous.

The big guns are located on the Vietnam side of the border, the officers said, but U.S. troops have not been sent into the area because of the risk of "crossing the border by accident."

Elsewhere, the U.S. Command reported shelling of military bases and population centers tapered off to about 10 or 15 overnight. Casualties and damage again were listed as light.

Command officers announced they will report only "significant" shellings from now on, but spokesmen declined to say whether this meant U.S. officials felt the Viet Cong's eight-week-old spring offensive has ended.

To Be Repeated Tonight

Senior Play Proves Hit With Comedy Highlights

Clanking pipes, flashing lights and jets of steam provided an exciting climax to the Friday night presentation of the East Liverpool High senior play, "Who Was That Lady I Saw You With?" The eight different scenes of the play were located at just about every accessible area of the large stage of the new auditorium facility.

The play concerns the efforts of an assistant chemistry professor to prove to his wife that a young foreign exchange student's kissing him was purely innocent. With the aid of his friend, a TV writer, they fabricate the story that they are FBI agents and that the girl was a spy.

The plot gets complicated when the real FBI, led by an agent with a bad case of ulcers, becomes involved. Foreign agents enter the picture, and the results add up to an evening of hilarity.

Herb Purton gave an in-depth performance as the chemistry professor who was especially humorous when bugged by the two spies, played very well by Ken Johnson and Don Hancock.

Gretchen Gaston capably portrayed the part of the wife who is the target of all the little white lies. Steve Pickin played the cynical TV writer excellently, his many facial expressions adding much to the play.

Mike Grimes was hit in his role of the long-suffering FBI agent who existed on a steady diet of Tums. Jim Musuraca and George Manning aided him in his futile attempt to keep the situation from becoming public.

The scene in the restaurant, featuring Yuko Takebayashi, ELHS's exchange student, and attractive Sue Satow and Amy Cartwright, was a highlight of the play.

Rounding out the cast are Oliver Spencer, Tom Gooding, Bob Pelley, Nancy Hopper, Kirk McCall, Jayne Ann Kyle, Diana Lerch, and Chris Conrad.

The play, under the direction of Keith Langdon and James Martin, will be repeated tonight at 8 in the auditorium. Tickets will be available at the door.

Mental Health Aide Urges 'Prevention' As Key Effort

"Good Mental Health - Like Charity - Begins at Home" was the topic presented at the 15th annual dinner meeting of the Child Counseling Center by George W. Watson, Chief of Mental Health Education in Columbus, Wednesday night.

The dinner at the Trinity United Presbyterian Church was attended by 123.

Watson said, "We are engaged in a highly essential effort, but one that lacks the sensational elements of many areas of physical medicine."

He stated "It was possible we have all concerned ourselves too much with healing and not enough with prevention. We should think of early recognition of potential danger signals and seek the opportunity for dignified investigation of these danger signs."

"No one should be unnecessarily embarrassed, but should receive understanding and courteous treatment - expert and scientifically correct help," he told the group. "This is no place for the do-gooder."

He stated the need is great for aid for the middle class who are too proud to ask for help, and the community program should be for everyone.

He mentioned the "too busy parents - doing too much running around to be good parents at home." Children need the 'father figure', he added.

Efforts aimed primarily at children and their welfare are especially difficult and require a deep sense of dedication and responsibility - they call for a committed - united approach, Watson said.

Mrs. Lilyan Alpern, president, welcomed the guests. The Rev. H. Gene Toot gave the invocation.

and value to the community were given by Cornell Monda, psychologist at the center.

Mrs. Margaret Thompson, a local teacher, was recognized for attending all 15 annual dinners.

H. Thayer Allison reported that new directors elected are Mrs. Elmer Eiferd, Mrs. Jay Dysett and Richard Martin.

Judge Louis Tobin introduced the speaker.

Mrs. J. Donald Thompson and Mrs. Marie Hays were in charge of the dinner arrangements.

Mrs. Paul Davis was chairman of table decorations.

Mrs. Edith Martosoff, administrator of the Robert Croft School for Retarded Children near Lisbon, had displays of arts and crafts by the children of the school.

Miss Elizabeth Coleman and Miss Kathleen Potter were in charge of dinner tickets and the Women's association of the church served the dinner.

Pittsburgher Due Hearing In Fight

A Pittsburgh man was charged with disorderly conduct following a fight near Pop's Tavern at 17th and Main Sts. in Wellsville at 11:45 p.m. Friday.

Clement Costanzo Jr. was later treated at City Hospital for cuts of the right index finger and scalp.

Costanzo was arrested by Wellsville police and posted $50 bond for a later hearing.

West Virginia Hit Hard By Wind, Rain

By The Associated Press
An early summer - like wind and rain storm struck West Virginia Friday evening, uprooting trees, overturning house trailers and causing thousands of dollars worth of damage.

The 60-mile-an-hour winds were gone this morning, but the U. S. Weather Bureau says showers will continue. Temperatures today are expected to range to only 56-64 degrees - almost 20 degrees below the highs of the past couple of days.

The high winds gusted up to 60 miles an hour in some places. St. Albans, west of Charleston, appeared among the hardest hit areas. Roofs were blown off buildings and cars crushed by falling trees.

Power and telephone service was interrupted in St. Albans and in Spencer, northwest of Charleston in Roane County.

Two FMC Co. employees working in the power room of the South Charleston plant were burned in an accident when power to the plant was knocked out.

In neighboring Kentucky, authorities at Bowling Green reported hail stones the size of golf balls.

Reminder Given On Tax Deadline

LISBON - Auditor Kenneth Bell reminds Columbiana County residents of the April 30 deadline for filing personal property tax returns in his office at the Courthouse.

The tax is required of all residents owning intangible property, regardless of its use, such as stocks, bonds, notes, debentures and credit balances with brokers, and of individuals and corporations engaged in business, such as manufacturers, merchants, farmers, lawyers, doctors, dentists, accountants and others.

Mandatory penalties and additional charges are provided by statute for persons filing late. Tax forms and assistance in filing may be obtained at his office, Bell said.

Two Resolutions Set For Council

Council will consider two pieces of legislation Monday night - one a fund transfer and the other authorizing the city to enter into a contract for so-called "blanket bonding."

Solicitor J. Michael Kapp said members will consider transferring $1,000 from the police salary fund to another for police overtime.

The second resolution would authorize Safety - Service Director Robert Vodrey to enter into a contract with the Hartford Insurance Co. to provide the public employees "blanket bond" for a three-year period at a cost of $619.

Kapp said the bonding measure, already given approval by Council during a meeting two weeks ago, will save the municipality about $3,000.

Four Jailed In Riot Case

KENT, Ohio (AP) - Four persons were in Portage County Jail at Ravenna Friday night following their arrest by the Ohio Highway Patrol on charges of inciting to riot.

The four part of a group of 58 persons arrested following a demonstration Wednesday at Kent State University, were identified as Edward "Rick" Erickson, 24, of Akron; Howie Emmer, 22, of Cleveland; George Gibeaut, 20, of North Randall; and Collin Neiburger, 19, of Baltimore, Md.

The first three were identified as Kent State students. Neiburger was reportedly registered at the school during winter quarter.

Earlier Friday all 58 arrested Wednesday pleaded innocent in Portage Municipal Court and were granted continuances. All were charged with trespassing except one person charged with resisting arrest.

They were arrested after they allegedly broke into a campus building where a closed judicial hearing stemming from an earlier demonstration was being held.

A university spokesman said two other persons, one a student, were also being sought on inciting to riot warrants.

Friday afternoon, some 4,000 of the university's 18,000 students marched in support of an ultimatum giving the school until Monday to meet student demands or face a possible strike.

Demands, submitted by a new student group called Concerned Citizens Committee, include the lifting of all charges and suspensions levied against the persons arrested Wednesday and reinstatement of Kent's chapter of Students for a Democratic Society. The actions, the group said, violate the student conduct code.

The marchers, in a column five abreast, wound around the campus guided by students and faculty wearing armbands. There were no incidents during the march.

Demands and the deadline had been agreed upon at a meeting of 1,500 students earlier Friday at the student union.

A student spokesman said "there will be no San Francisco State" if a strike were to be called, implying that boycotting students would not harass non-striking students or attempt to keep them from attending classes.

A faculty senate meeting Friday gave strong endorsement to President Robert I. White in handling recent campus demonstrations. The resolution, signed earlier as a petition by 475 faculty members, stated "its strong approval for the efforts made by the president and his staff to maintain an orderly campus."

Another motion called for the senate's executive committee to meet as soon as possible with student government leaders to discuss the campus situation.

A university spokesman said two student disciplinary hearings were held Friday, both in closed session at the students' request.

The Fingers Game

Thatsa 'Morra!'

By NORMA J. LIBERATORE

Members of the Midland area "morra" league are looking forward to the annual picnic and awards presentation June 1 at the Midland Sportsmen's farm.

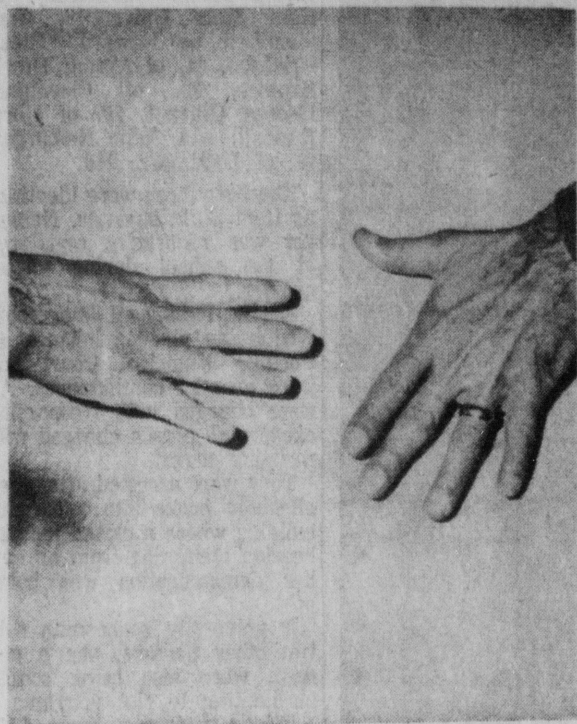

Trophies will be given to the championship team which includes John (Moose) Uccellini, captain; Dan Santia, Henry Verzella, Rocco Ciancone, John Cindrich, Henry Castelli, Francis Deramo and James Cerasi.

The "fingers" game is descended from ancient Rome. It has been around for 2,500 years, although there seems to be no material evidence. Old Romans knew the game league plays four quarters for 20 weeks — five weeks to a quarter. Each team to get the first 24 points wins the match. Two or three game matches were played each night so one team could win six points.

Although Italian words are used, the game is not limited to those of Italian descent. There are many nationalities in the league. All that is needed is a keen mind and the talent to outguess one's opponent. Age is no drawback.

EXCITEMENT rides high at the St. Anthony Club when the men group around a long as "micatio". In fact, a Roman phrase for indicating a man's integrity was, "You could play micatio with him in the dark."

The game has been forbidden by law in Italy, in an effort to reduce fights as well as control gambling. Scarcely anyone pays attention to the law, and morra continues toward the 21st century.

ITALIAN WORDS are used for the different numbers that are shouted by the players, who are lined up along a table in teams.

The words that are used include, Due (two); Tre (three); Quattro (four); Cinque (five); Sei (six); Sette (seven); Otto (eight); Nova (nine) and Dieci (ten). Uno (one), of course, is not needed.

The game, brought to this country many years ago, has had a rebirth in Midland in the form of the league which was formed by Uccellini. The table and shout out the numbers — especially when one man wins points over several opponents.

Two players throw out their hands above the table with fingers extended and shout a number as a guess to total of both players' fingers. The players can use from two to five fingers for totals from two to ten. The player who guesses the correct total wins the point.

In the event both players call the same total, they keep playing until only one guesses correctly.

The word "morra" means all or total, so when a player calls morra he has won the point. After a night of this, there are often many sore arms.

Members of the league pay dues each week, with the money used to buy trophies and sponsor the picnic. The only real stipulation the group has is — no women! It's strictly stag.

You And The Law

If someone fails to meet the terms of a contract he has with you, you may sue him. This is a civil action.

A person charged with robbery will face a criminal action in court.

Civil actions and criminal actions are the two main categories for all court actions.

BASICALLY, civil actions are those in which a person, business or other agency seeks to get compensation or other relief from another person, business or agency. The most common civil action is a lawsuit for damages arising from an auto accident.

A civil action is generally brought either for breach of contract or for a negligent or willful wrong — such as the auto accident — which is known as a tort. Tort is a French word meaning "wrong."

In the civil case, the person filing the charge is known as the plaintiff. The person being charged is the defendant. There can be more than one plaintiff and defendant in a case.

IN A CRIMINAL CASE, the action is brought by a government agency — city, state or federal. Here, the government agency becomes the prosecution and the accused the defendant.

There are two general types of crimes which may be charged. A felony is one in which the crime is punishable by imprisonment for more than a year or by death. A misdemeanor is a crime for which punishment is imprisonment for less than a year. There may be fines involved in some instances.

In the civil case, the plaintiff must prove his case by a "preponderance of the evidence" for conviction. In a criminal case, the prosecution must prove the defendant guilty "beyond a reasonable doubt" for a conviction.

In a civil case, either party may appeal the decision to a higher court. Generally, the right of appeal in a criminal case is available only to the defendant. Otherwise, the prosecution would be able to place the defendant under "double jeopardy" — trying a person more than once for the same offense.

The Verse Box

First Robin?

Say thou not the Robins sing
Today to, usher in the Spring;
The cadence of the Robin's song
Has not been absent Winter long.

His fewer chirps were not the tune
We came to know and love in June --
But lo' (like us) all birds of feather
Cannot leave here for pleasant weather...

Some there are who must remain
To hold the fort; patrol the plain;
Make sure that everything's in order
For the strictly Summer boarder!

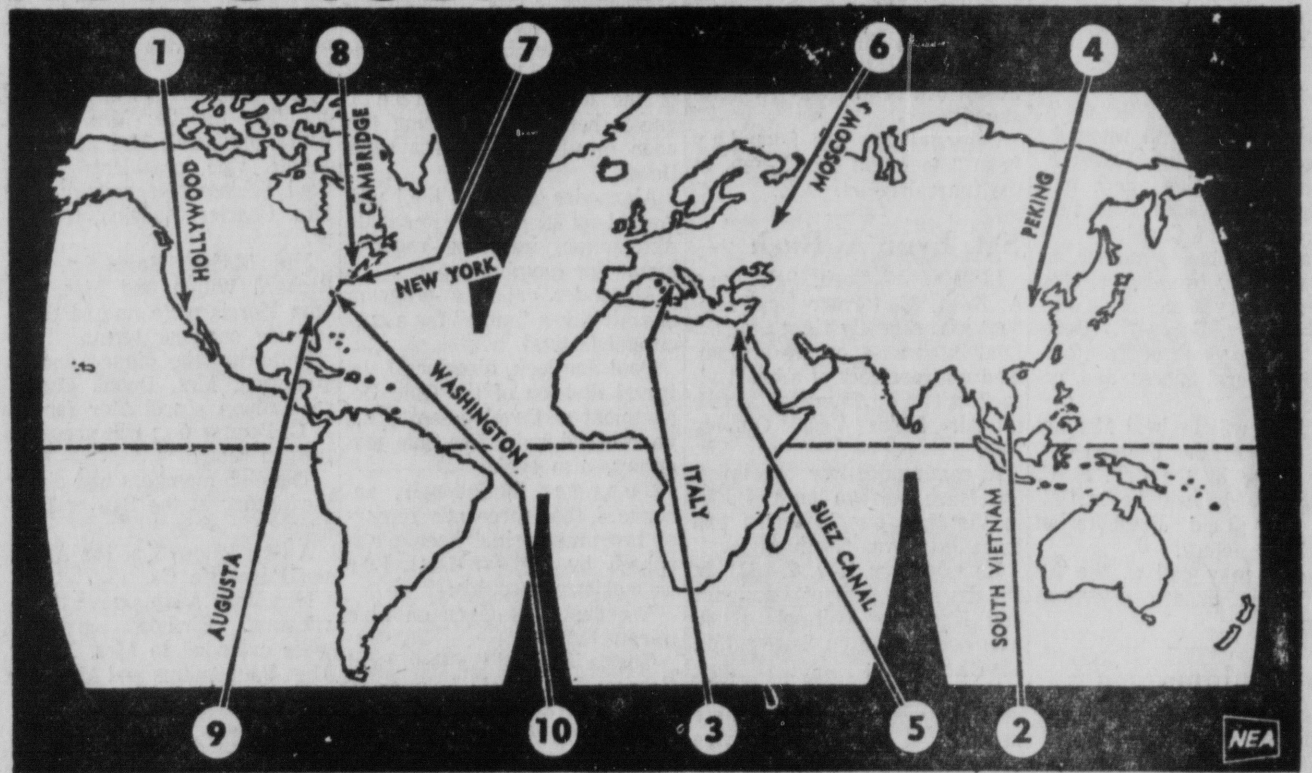

These perch back, tongues in cheeks,
A knowing look upon their beaks
And listen to the word of mouth
Of the brash newcomer from the South!

And those who hear this loud oration
About that Winter-long vacation,
Confuse his with the Voice of Spring
Because he has the nerve to sing!

The poor old jaded Winter dweller --
Is a sad and faded little feller --
Who would hark, if from tree or rocks,
HE held forth about the Equinox?

Stamps In The News

A simple design of a mission belfry will appear on a new 6-cent U.S. stamp commemorating the 200th anniversary of the settlement of California. First-day ceremonies will be on July 16 in San Diego where in 1769 a Spanish expedition under Gov.

Gaspar de Portola, accompanied by Father Junipero Serra, began colonization.

The Mission of Carmel was established in 1770 and reconstructed in the 1870s. Framing a blue sky is the light brown sandstone edifice in which six bells are set. The dominant bell in the foreground is light brown and the five smaller bells are dark brown. At the top in red capitals is "California." Beneath the state's name are the dates 1769-1969.

Although California has been a land under many flags — Spain, Mexico, Sovereign (independent) and U.S. — no indication of such history or its present status as the largest state in the union (come next census) appears. The simplicity of the design is refreshing and in good taste.

Collectors desiring first-day cancellations may send addressed envelopes, together with remittance to cover the cost of the stamps to be affixed, to the Postmaster, San Diego, Calif. 92101. The outside envelope should be endorsed "First Day Covers 6c California Bicentennial Stamp." Requests must be postmarked no later than July 16.

Octavius, Roman emperor of 29 B.C., had a private zoo containing 420 tigers, 260 lions and 600 other African animals, including cheetahs, panthers, elephants and 36 crocodiles.

The Younger Set

BUSY SIGNAL at the phone company — A multi-million dollar drain is the abuse of "information please." Skyrocketing costs of "directory service" have many phone companies plugging like demons the idea, "use your directory, use your yellow pages." Sometime, somehow, social security numbers will become telephone numbers. Will also become charge card numbers. The impersonalization prospects are terrifying, but the present system is in the horse-and-buggy era of computerization. Sympathize a little with the phone guys. Use your directory!! But wait, hey there, telephone companies . . . what are you doing about providing groovy personal phone number books, possibly combined with a calendar? Nothing! In a way the communications gap shows widest in the government-riddled and regulated utility field.

STUDENT VS. STUDENT confrontation — Peer opposition to disruption and violence is finally blossoming. Majority of high school and college students oppose attempts to disrupt the academic process. "Good guys" have lacked organization and are still intimidated by the more militant groups. Signs are now flying that indicate the student majority is fed up and ready to move. Student leaders and athletes are banding together to resist the educational slowdown they resent. Look for increased student vs. student clashes to take the pressure off school officials and the police.

LOOSE PRESCRIPTION crackdown — Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs is stepping up pressure on doctors and pharmacists involved in the widespread abuse of the present prescription system. Huge quantities of amphetamines and barbiturates via loose practices of doctors in prescribing and druggists in filling, even "overfilling," now under scrutiny. Hoped-for corrective measures aimed at manufacturer and wholesale level. "Dangerous Substance" act, now under consideration as a bill to be introduced in Congress, would license all manufacturers and distributors of covered drugs. This would include pharmacies.

THE AIRLINES STEAM — Youthfare continues as a major "can't live with, can't live without" dilemma. Major brow-wrinkler for airline execs has been the devious and dishonest way teen fliers have abused the half-fare regulation. Multiple fraudulent "reservations" to insure availability of a seat have been a huge and expensive reality for airlines to face. New cheating techniques involve adults using teen fronts at the ticket and gate counters. Once validated, the half-fare traveler hands over the ticket to the adult accomplice. Until recently the passenger merely flashed a boarding pass to the stewardess or gate agent. New practices color-code and in other ways distinguish youthfare passengers. Fares fair! There's too much at stake for all of teendom for young America to be cat's paw for full-fare flyers. Youthfares are a great lift for teens and airlines. Honesty is needed to keep the golden goose alive and healthy.

Outdoor Notes

Ohio's parks, forests and wildlife areas will observe Open House April 27, Fred E. Morr, Ohio Department of Natural Resources director has announced.

"We welcome this opportunity of showing Ohioans the strides we have made in improving and expanding Ohio's facilities for outdoor recreation and resource management," said Morr. "Families out driving are urged to stop for an interesting visit at any park, forest or wildlife area."

Uniformed personnel, from the Divisions of Parks and Recreation, Wildlife, and Forestry and Reclamation, will be on hand to answer questions, and to hand out informational folders and sheets to help visitors plan summer vacations and outdoor weekends. These will include the two new directories — one listing state lodges and cabins; the other showing camp sites and camping information.

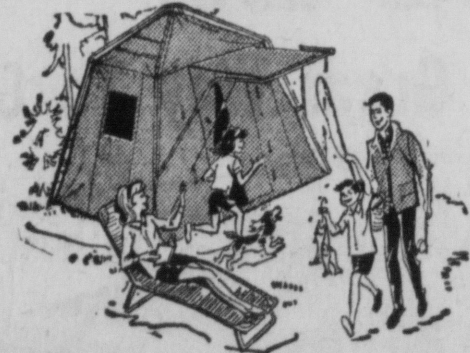

"This year we have something to offer for boat owners," said Melvin J. Rebholz, Division of Parks and Recreation chief. "All the locks will be open on the Muskingum River from Dresden in Muskingum County to Marietta in Washington County, a 93-mile stretch giving access to the Ohio River, the Mississippi and the Gulf."

The 10 locks were rebuilt and are being operated by the Division after they were turned over to the state by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

At eight of the locks the Department of Natural Resources has constructed picnic parks with drinking water, sanitary and parking facilities. Four of these parks have launching ramps — at No. 11 in Muskingum County, at No. 6 and No. 5 locks in Morgan County, and at No. 4 at Beverly in Washington County.

THE DIVISION OF PARKS and Recreation has scheduled hikes for 10 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. on Open House Day, to be led by naturalists at Hueston Woods State Park in Preble and Butler Counties, and at Beaver Creek State Park near East Liverpool in Columbiana County.

Three Fish Farms and two Wildlife Areas will make special arrangements to welcome visitors on Open House Day according to Dan Armbruster, Chief, Division of Wildlife.

They are Akron Fish Farm and District Headquarters in Summit County, Kincaid Fish Farm at Sinking Springs, Pike County; Grand Lake St. Mary's Fish Farm in Mercer County; Magee Marsh Wildlife Area on Route 2 west of Port Clinton in Ottawa County, and Waterloo Wildlife Experiment Station, 10 miles west of Athens, near the junction of State Routes 56 and 356 in Athens County.

Irving I. Dickman, Division of Forestry and Reclamation chief, announced that uniformed personnel will welcome visitors and hand out information sheets at 11 facilities from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

They are Goll Woods in Fulton County; District 3 Headquarters in New Philadelphia, Tuscarawas County; Mohican State Forest, Ashland County; Shawnee and Brush Creek State Forests in Scioto County; Hocking State Forest, Hocking County; Zaleski State Forest, Vinton County; Marietta

Nursery, five miles east of Marietta in Washington County; Green Springs Nursery, a mile west of Green Springs in Sandusky County; and Zanesville Nursery, six miles north of Zanesville on Route 676 in Muskingum County.

Visitors are welcome at the Division's fire towers if they are manned on Open House Day.

THE MIDLAND SPORTSMAN'S CLUB has again joined the Big Ten campaign as a star supporter. The club was also one of the earliest joiners last year. Some of the club's officers this year are Erwin C. St. George Sr., president; James Boyle, vice president; Richard C. Martell, secretary; and Mike Hornick, Frank Poff Jr., Peter Bernardi, Donald C. Scarsella, Anthony Monaco, Clifford C. Chambers and Rodney T. Bear, directors.

THE OHIO-PENNSYLVANIA Bird Dog Association will hold its 15th annual field trials April 26 and 27. The event will be hosted by the Panhandle Pointer and Setter Club at its running grounds on the Witherspoon farm located off old Route 22 about eight miles west of the Penn Lincoln Parkway between Pittsburgh and Weirton. The program will start at 8 a.m. with Tom Perry and Matt Mansch serving as judges. Further information may be obtained by calling Glen Schuch at 412-751-6155.

IN A RECENT SURVEY conducted in the New Hampshire State Park system by the U.S. Forest Service, figures show that most campers were in favor of paying a camping fee for the use of a campground.

The survey showed campers felt their fee was a legitimate means of paying the cost of maintaining public campground facilities. Some campers favored the fee system as a means of minimizing crowded conditions. Most of the campers felt that a charge of two or three dollars was reasonable for a campsite although most felt a higher fee would be in order if accommodations included watersport facilities.

Eliminate Knicks, 106-105

Celtics Hang On To Win Eastern Division Title

By DAVE O'HARA
Associated Press Sports Writer
BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Celtics, written off as tired old men just a short time ago, are back in familiar surroundings — the title round of the National Basketball Association playoffs.

Acting like the old pros they are, the Celtics won the Eastern Division playoff for the 12th time in 13 years by hanging on for a 106-105 victory over the New York Knicks Friday night in steamy Boston Garden.

The Celtics, who have won the NBA championship 10 times since Player-Coach Bill Russell entered the league and became a defensive genius 13 years ago, managed only one victory in seven starts against New York during the regular season. Boston finished fourth in the East and the cry went up: "The Celtics are dead." But the Celtics were playing possum in their own way, aiming for the playoffs.

After finishing off Philadelphia in the Eastern semifinals, the Celtics whipped the mighty Knicks 4-2 in the best-of-seven finals. Now Boston will mark time while Los Angeles battles Atlanta in the Western Division.

Los Angeles can wrap up the series in the fifth game Sunday. "I'm glad that's over," Russell said wearily after playing his usual 48 minutes in the finale against New York. "The Knicks were tough, a real good team. We had to go all out."

Russell scored 12 points, grabbed 21 rebounds, blocked a half dozen shots and set up teammates for baskets although he had to play cautiously after picking up his fifth foul at the three-minute mark of the fourth period.

Mike Riordan, an unheralded reserve, helped bring the Knicks back from a nine-point deficit midway through the finale and finished with 15 points.

Sam Jones, humiliated by being held to just 12 points by New York in two previous games, was the key man in nailing down the victory. The 36-year-old veteran, retiring after this season, scored 29 points, the last a crucial free throw with three seconds left.

"Anytime you end a series with a win you feel great," Jones said.

Trevino, Archer Leading 'Champions' Event At 142

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
RANCHO LA COSTA, Calif. (AP) — U.S. Open champion Lee Trevino and masters titleholder George Archer, tied for the second round lead in golf's $150,000 tournament of champions, pick the same man to win it — Lee Trevino.

"You have to pick Trevino," the gangling, 6-foot-6 Archer said. "He's the best driver on the tour. He says he only leaves the fairway to go to the phone. That's about right."

"And that's what you have to do to win on this course, stay in the fairway. The rough is really rough."

"If my driver stays like it was today," Trevino said Friday after shooting a second-round 68, four under par, "I'd say I like my chances very much."

"You've got to keep it in the fairway to win and I can hit it as straight as anyone else." Trevino, seven shots back going into the second round, and Archer, who has a pair of 71s, are tied at 142 going into today's third round on the 7,114 yard, par-72 La Costa Country Club course.

Just one shot back at 143 are Gene Littler, who had a second round 68, South African Gary Player, 49-year-old Julius Boros, the PGA champion, and dynamic Arnold Palmer.

Player, Boros and Palmer all had second round 74s.

First round leader Dick Lotz, a 26-year-old Californian, dropped back with a 78 for 145, while bulky Jack Nicklaus shot himself out of contention with a whopping 80, one of the poorest rounds in years for the golden bear. He has a 36-hole score of 153, 11 shots off the pace

Baltimore's Dave McNally set six Oriole pitching records last season when he won 22 games. He was 14-2 after the All-Star

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
Baltimore's pitching staff has Washington's number—and it's a great big zero.

Tom Phoebus fired a four-hitter at the Senators Friday night, blanking them 6-0 for the fourth straight shutout by Baltimore's staff against Washington this season.

Phoebus got plenty of support from the potent Baltimore attack which provided four more home runs, two of them by Paul Blair. The Orioles have won seven of their last eight games and slammed 16 homers over that span.

In other American League action, Boston belted Cleveland 10-7 and Minnesota took California 6-0 on a two-hitter by rookie Tom Hall. Oakland's game at Kansas City and Seattle's game at Chicago were rained out. Detroit and New York had the day off.

In the National League, San Diego tripped San Francisco 3-1 and Los Angeles rallied to beat Houston 5-4. New York at St. Louis, Pittsburgh at Philadelphia and Atlanta at Cincinnati were rained out while Montreal and Chicago were not scheduled.

In addition to Blair's two homers, Frank Robinson tagged his sixth of the season, extending his hitting streak to 11 games, and Elrod Hendricks added a two-run shot.

The Orioles, fresh from a three-game, 30-run, 48-hit romp in Boston, kept the pounding up against the Senators. Blair homered in the first inning and then hit another in the third in almost the identical spot. Hendricks had a two-run shot against reliever Casey Cox and leads the American League with a .435 batting average. Robinson's .419 average is third in the AL.

It was Phoebus' second shutout against the Senators. Baltimore hung three straight blankings on Washington last weekend.

Boston caught Fenway fever from the Orioles, who had just left town, and cracked five home runs out of the friendly confines of its park to batter Cleveland.

Ken Harrelson socked two and Tony Conigliaro, Rico Petrocelli and Carl Yastrzemski all had one each as Boston unloaded on Luis Tiant, ace of the Indians' pitching staff. Tiant, who absorbed his third defeat, was tagged for all five homers, five doubles and a single.

Petrocelli's homer was his third in three games and Yastrzemski's shot broke an 0-for-15 slump for the two-time batting champ.

Jose Cardenal and Russ Snyder connected for the Indians, who lost their eighth game in nine starts.

Hall, a slender left-hander, pitched Minnesota to its fourth straight victory, setting the Angels down easily. He allowed only a first inning triple by Jim Fregosi and a single in the seventh by Lou Johnson.

The Twins used clutch singles for all their runs. Walks to Harmon Killebrew and Bob Allison and singles by Leo Cardenas and Frank Quilici produced two runs in the second. Killebrew, Tony Oliva, Allison and George Mitterwald had consecutive singles for two more runs in the sixth. Then singles by Killebrew and Oliva combined with a pair of errors and a wild pitch gave Minnesota two more in the eighth.

The shutout extended Hall's scoreless streak against the Angels this season to 16 innings. "We're feeling him out," joked California Manager Bill Rigney.

Padres Halt Streak, Nip Giants

Willie Mays Sets Another NL Record

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

It started out as another memorable night for Willie Mays, but Frank Reberger and Al Santorini will never forget how it ended.

Mays set a National League record of 2,422 appearances as an outfielder when he trotted out to center for the start of Friday night's game between the San Francisco Giants and San Diego Padres.

Two hours and 40 minutes later, San Diego's Reberger choked off a ninth inning rally, preserved Santorini's first major league pitching triumph and nailed a 3-1 victory over the Giants — by striking out Mays with the bases loaded.

The victory snapped a six-game losing streak for the NL expansion club, beaten four times by the Giants during its tailspin.

The bases also were bulging with two out in the ninth at Los Angeles, but Dooley Womack failed where Reberger had succeeded. The Huston reliever walked Bill Russell and Wes Parker, forcing home the tying and winning runs in a 5-4 Dodger victory.

The other games on the NL schedule—Pittsburgh at Philadelphia, New York at St. Louis and Atlanta at Cincinnati — were rained out.

Reberger, a rookie right-hander who had been ineffective in four earlier relief appearances with the Padres, came out of the bullpen with two on and one out in the ninth. He got pinch hitter Dave Marshall on a fly to center, walked pinch hitter Don Mason to fill the bases and then fired a third strike past Mays, wrapping up his first save.

Santorini, a right-hander plucked in the expansion draft from the Atlanta Braves' organization, checked the Giants on five hits before leaving the game after the Padres' seventh.

Clarence Gaston paced San Diego's attack with a double and sacrifice fly, good for two RBIs.

Mays broke Max Carey's league mark of 2,421 games as an outfielder, set with Pittsburgh and Brooklyn from 1910 to 1929.

The Astros took a 4-2 lead into the ninth, but successive none-out doubles by Tom Haller and Bill Sudakis closed the gap before Womack, the fourth Houston pitcher in the inning, was brought in by Manager Harry Walker.

The move backfired when Russell and Parker drew the decisive walks from the former New York Yankees' bullpen specialist.

Run-scoring doubles by Norm Miller and Doug Miller off Don Drysdale in the seventh had given the Astros a two-run lead. Drysdale drove in the second of two Dodger runs in the fifth, but was thrown out at the plate trying to score on Willie Crawford's double.

The Dodger pitching ace and Houston catcher Johnny Edwards were shaken up in the collision at the plate.

Archer had five birds and four boogies, all of the latter coming when he got into the deep rough. His birdie putts were from 20, 20, 20 and 18 feet, and he reached one par five in two.

Shoulder Treated

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Rich Allen's big bat will be lost to the Philadelphia Phillies for an indefinite period. Allen is undergoing treatment for a mild strain of an old shoulder injury. How soon the first baseman returns to action depends on how the shoulder responds "on a day-to-day basis," a spokesman said.

Jose Napoles Stops Cokes In Round 13

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Cuban refugee Jose Napoles waited five years for his title shot and when he got it, the fight proved no contest as he hammered Curtis Cokes into submission after 13 rounds for the welterweight crown.

With his eyes swollen shut, Cokes simply couldn't see to continue fighting and although the boxer wanted to go on, manager Doug Lord asked the bout at The Forum Friday night be halted.

"I knew about the 10th round when he didn't like those left hooks to the body that I was winning," Napoles declared through an interpreter. "I followed our plan of keeping Cokes in the center of the ring and not let him fight off the ropes."

Napoles, who now calls Mexico City his home, weighed 143 to 145½ for the champion, and stood an inch shorter. Cokes had two inches in reach but that didn't help. Napoles kept boring in with his relentless attack.

"I just couldn't get off," the ex-champion said through swollen lips. "I just couldn't get started. Yes, I'd like a rematch."

Lord said, "you'll see a different Curtis Cokes in a rematch. If you don't, I'll retire him."

Junior Editors Quiz on DESERTS

QUESTION: How do desert animals get enough water?

ANSWER: It is amazing how plants and animals can exist on the very small amounts of water they get in a desert, for all living things need moisture. The answer is that nature has worked out many ingenious ways for desert plants and animals to get and conserve water. The camel doesn't sweat like other animals and so a drink of water lasts him a long time. Deserts are hot, and heat means thirst, so many animals burrow underground during the heat of the day and come out in the cooler evening and nighttime (see picture). Many beetles have a tight round shell which holds moisture in. Hard scales and shells do the same job for desert reptiles. The internal anatomy of many desert creatures is arranged so they can get all the moisture they need from their plant or animal food. Many can go without drinking for weeks and months. Desert plants catch every possible drop during the rare showers and conserve it inside of dry, leathery coverings. Cactus plants are a good example of this. Sharp spines protect such plants from thirsty animals.

Tax Bill 'Poison'

Rhodes Drops Hot Potato

By JOHN R. THOMAS
Review Staff Correspondent

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Any proposed tax legislation should be marked with skull and cross bones for the benefit of those few who might not have learned along the way that tax legislation is political poison.

That's the first lesson learned by most state legislators here.

And it certainly has to be assumed that Gov. James A. Rhodes knew about the axiom despite his introduction two weeks ago of the omnibus education bill, better known as the vendor's excise and county income tax bill.

Drops Hot Potato

But last week, Gov. Rhodes found himself holding a hot potato in a very warm kitchen with no visible comfort on the way from a tax-leary 100th General Assembly.

So he withdrew his support from the bill, thus replacing the bones-marked tax legislation bottle. The move — made under the guise of austerity and blamed in part on the federal income surtax — caught the legislature by surprise.

The move was called unprecedented by old-timers, and some of the governor's strongest backers were left dumbfounded that a approximately halfway through the current session, the administration has not presented a clear-cut direction.

The governor, whose political acumen seldom has been questioned, didn't suddenly discover last week what he knew two weeks ago when he introduced the tax-hike bill — that the legislature was not going to enact any new taxes this year.

No Dark Plot Involved

So his withdrawal of administration support for the bill shouldn't have taken anyone too much by surprise. Simply put, there was no dark plot involved in the governor's deciding that he was washing his hands of the tax plan legislation on which his top aides and Finance Director Howard Collier had toiled for nearly three months.

Simply stated, all the rhetoric about austerity and the income tax surcharge aside, the governor decided that he would put the knife to the tax proposals himself rather than let the legislature kill them off.

But the question remains: Why did he ever introduce it in the first place? That he had trouble getting sponsors was no secret, and the leadership in neither house beat his door down to get its hands on the legislation first.

Preview Of Future?

One reason could very well be that he had to justify "somehow the Governor's Task Force on Vocational and Technical Education, which reported its conclusions in early January. Rhodes as much as said soon after the introduction of the bill that it did not contain his ideas, but rather those of the task force, which it did.

But if the recommendations of the task force were unrealistic in the political world in January, they were no less so nearly three months later.

A second possible reason he had the bill introduced is that he merely wanted to give the folks a preview of what they eventually will have to face up to in the area of higher taxes. "If not now, later," he could have been saying.

A Question of Need

In the final analysis, there always was a question of whether there was a need for new taxes immediately to support the governor's vocational and technical programs.

The necessary machinery to implement the ideas has not been set up, and implementation of the task force's report is designed to take 10 years, Collier said.

The timing of the week's events — the governor's call for austerity, Rhodes today dedicates an 18-hole golf course at Hueston Woods State Park in southwestern Ohio.

An announcement of the dedication from the Division of Parks and Recreation tells of the modern glass-walled clubhouse and electric caddies.

Notwithstanding the merits of a state-owned golf course, the contrast in an alleged period of austerity seems interesting.

Old Stamping Ground

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Near-by Stamping Ground was named for the herds of buffalo which gathered about the spring and traces which centered there. Jesse James' parents were married and lived at Stamping Ground.

Iron, nickel and chromium are the three principal metals in the alloy known as "stainless steel."

Under the Kurfess bill, the gross adjusted income would be taxed by the county treasurer. Once the treasurer's machinery is set up, Kurfess says, the cities could use the same base for its income tax.

As much as 30 per cent in additional funds could be realized by the cities without raising the percentage of tax, some here are predicting.

The property owners, on the verge of a taxpayers' revolt, would find in many cases a reduction in real estate taxes and might not find an income tax as objectionable as some might think.

Provision for Rebate

And, to make property tax payers happy just before election time, there's a provision calling for a rebate to them on Oct. 30, 1970. The rebate would be necessary since it wouldn't be possible to tell the first year the income tax was in effect just how much property taxes would be reduced.

Know how happy you feel when you discover the government's going to give you back some of the income tax they collected during the year? The feeling of receiving a rebate on property taxes would be similar.

Of course, the property tax rebate would be received just before the 1970 elections for governor, U.S. senator, most state offices, all the state House of Representatives and half of the state Senate.

The fact that it was a Republican legislature that passed the law making the rebates possible would not be forgotten by the politicians.

Real Test For Speaker

The ability to sell the mandatory county income tax, in the face of the governor's stated opposition to mandatory taxes and the deep-seated antitax feelings by most citizens, will be a real test of Speaker Kurfess.

If he takes to the stump to support the tax proposal, it just might prove to be the exposure he seeks in connection with next year's statewide races.

Interesting Contrast

Six days after his call for austerity, Rhodes today dedicates an 18-hole golf course at Hueston Woods State Park in southwestern Ohio.

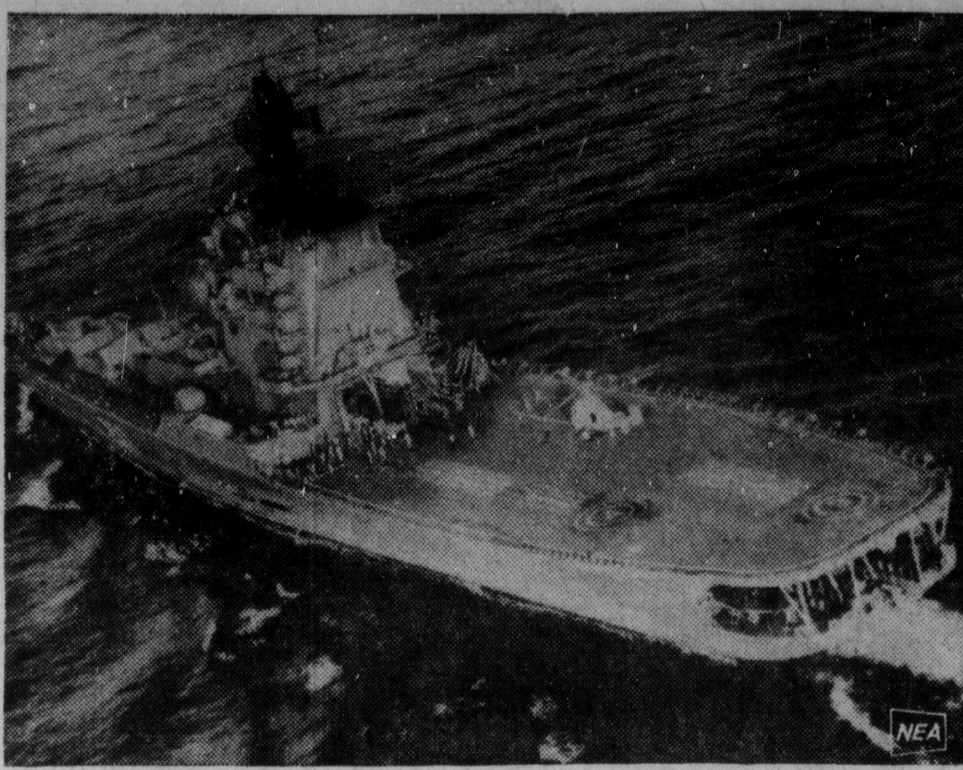

An announcement of the dedication from the Division of Parks and Recreation tells of the modern glass-walled clubhouse and electric caddies.

Notwithstanding the merits of a state-owned golf course, the contrast in an alleged period of austerity seems interesting.

Fines Assessed In Traffic Cases

A Fisher Park driver was fined in Municipal Court Friday on charges he was "in physical control of an auto while under the influence of alcohol."

James Vaughn of Williams Ave. was ordered to pay $100 and costs after his arrest about 11:51 a.m. Thursday on Broadway by police. He had posted a bond of $507.50.

Michael Ryan of 712 Sophia St. was fined $15 and costs for "peeling" tires and found guilty on a second charge of driving without an operator's license. On the license charge, Judge Samuel M. Chertoff deferred sentencing until a more thorough investigation can be made into Ryan's status as a licensed driver. Bond of $107.50 was continued.

Charles A. Potts of 18th St. Heights, Wellsville, was ordered to pay court costs for driving a high-lift without a "slow-moving vehicle" emblem on the rear.

He was charged by the Ohio Highway Patrol Wednesday on Route 45 about 6 p.m.

Lloyd H. Fetty of Fairview

Rd., Chester, was sent to the county jail after being fined $50 and costs on an intoxication charge. He was arrested about 1:30 p.m. Thursday on Dresden Ave.

Abel Election Made Official; Narick Undecided On Protest

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Emil Narick, who learned officially he had lost his bid for the presidency of the United Steelworkers union from a reporter, says he hasn't decided whether to protest the vote.

The union international tellers announced Friday that I. W. Abel won re-election as president of the nation's third-largest labor union. The official tally gave Abel 257,651 votes to Narick's 181,122.

Narick, a relatively unknown union lawyer, said he wasn't surprised he lost the Feb. 11 election.

"I heard it during the campaign that Abel was leading," he said, "but I didn't know the exact figure. And people in a position to know said, generally, that Abel was leading."

Narick, who keyed his campaign to bringing control of the union to the rank-and-file, was in his office at the union's Pittsburgh headquarters when the tellers made their announcement to newsmen six floors below.

Narick said he received no official word of his loss until he was contacted by The Associated Press.

He said he plans to review the election results with his associates and backers before deciding if he would use "my right to protest."

Abel could not be reached for comment.

The graying former mill worker now enters his second four-year term as president of the 1.2-million member union. Abel became the first man in union history to unseat an incumbent when he defeated David J. McDonald in 1965.

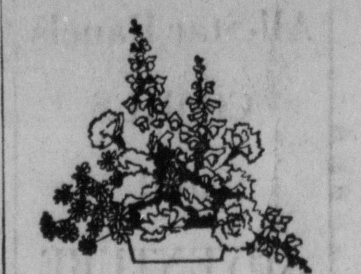

Walter J. Burke was re-elected secretary-treasurer, polling 285,923 votes to Morris Brumit's 136,999. Joseph P. Molony, who was unopposed as vice president, polled 349,336 votes.

In the race for the presidency of District 15, which stretches from Pittsburgh to Cambria County, Joseph Odorich was declared the winner of incumbent Paul Hilbert.

U.S. Naval Forces Rushed To Protect 'Spy' Planes

North Korea Insists On 'Violation'

Charges That U.S. 'Fled' Conference For Fear Of Truth

TOKYO (AP) — North Korea said today the United States "fled" from an armistice commission meeting at Panmunjom Friday because it feared "exposure of the truth" about its reconnaissance plane shot down in the Sea of Japan last Tuesday.

The declaration was made by Maj. Gen. Lee Choon-Sun North Korea's chief delegate to the meeting, who reiterated North Korean claims the U.S. Navy plane carrying 31 persons was downed after it violated Communist air space.

The United States, Lee said, was attempting "to reverse black and white" with statements that the plane was in international air space.

The North Korean Central News Agency broadcast Lee's statement. Lee also accused U.S. Air Force Maj. Gen. James B. Knapp, head of the U. N. Command delegation, of committing a "flagrant violation of the Korean armistice agreement" by walking out of the meeting.

KCNA said the walkout came 42 minutes after the meeting started when Lee pressed three times for identification of the unit which the downed reconnaissance plane was attached. "Finding himself in a fix where he could not escape the responsibility for this, the senior member of the enemy side let loose a whole string of robber-like sophistry in an attempt to justify the criminal act in sending a spy plane into the territorial air of our country on April 15," said Lee.

13 Job Corps Centers Given 'Close' Order

WASHINGTON — The Nixon administration has ordered seven Job Corps centers to begin closing immediately and six others to start shutting down by May 1, a move likely to fan further resentment in Congress.

The swift action in the closing process came Friday, a week after Secretary of Labor George P. Shultz announced the 59 of the corps' 113 centers will be closed by July 1.

Sen. Alan Cranston, D-Calif., said the Office of Economic Opportunity notified the centers by telegram Friday. He already had announced that he would introduce a resolution next week providing "that no Job Corps installation be shut down until Congress completes its normal legislative and budgetary deliberations on this program."

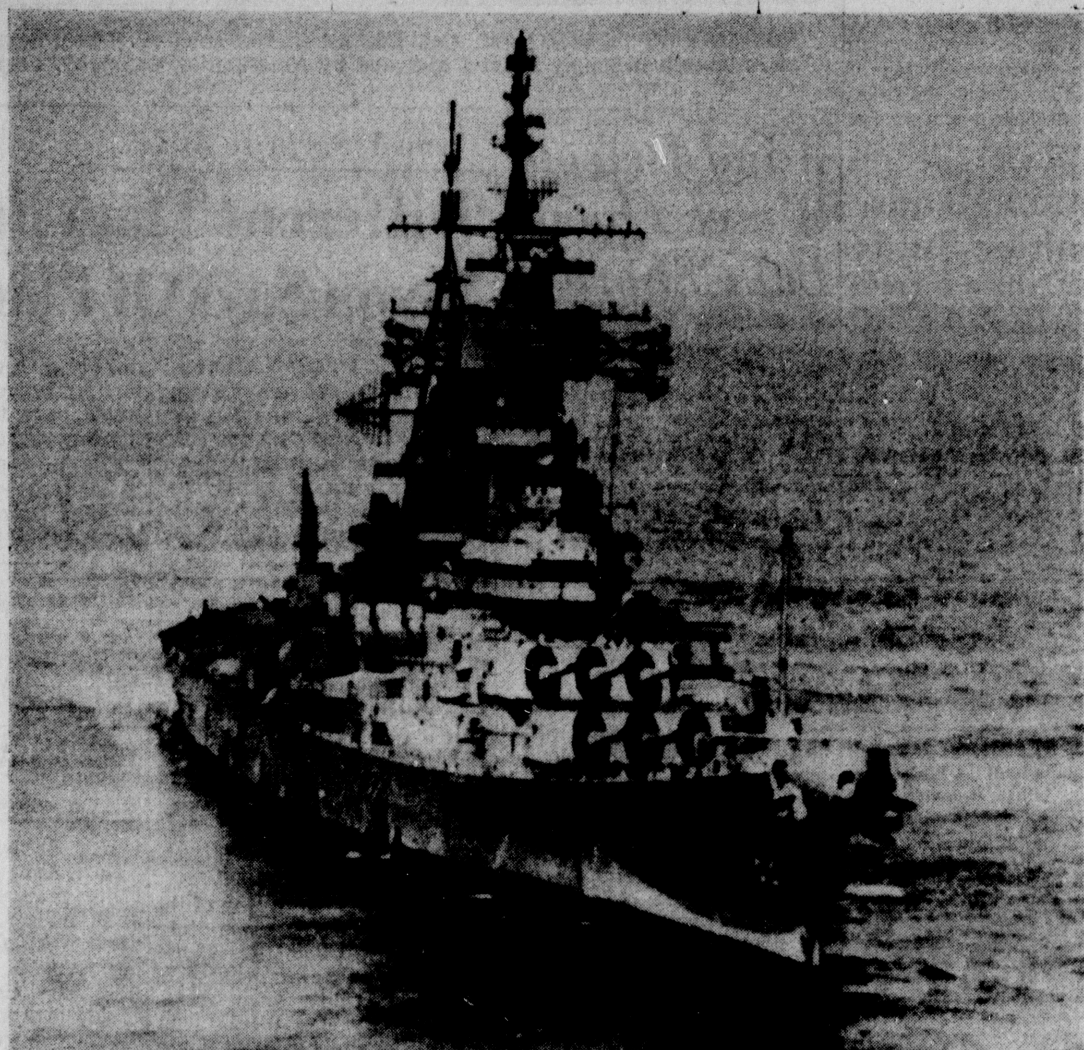

Bertrand M. Harding, acting OEO director, said all OEO contracts for Job Corps centers have 90-day termination clauses and the notices set the process in action. "There's not going to be any general locking of doors overnight," he said.

Installations listed for immediate closing are three in Puerto Rico—Guayama, Juana Diaz and Vieques—plus Camp Kilmer, N.J.; Oak Glen, Calif.; Marquette, Mich.; and Huntington, W. Va.

Scheduled to start shutdowns May 1 are the facilities at Clinton, Iowa; St. Louis; Poland Spring, Maine; Koko Head, Hawaii; Omaha, Neb.; and Moses Lake, Wash.

35 Feared Dead

TEHRAN (AP) — Thirty-five persons are feared drowned after a motorboat capsized off the coast of Kuwait Friday night, the newspaper Ayandegan reported today. The report said 16 passengers and crew members were rescued.

Armored Units In Action

U.S. Forces Claim Victory In Latest Duels With Cong

SAIGON (AP) — American armored units killed 100 North Vietnamese in two battles but lost at least four tanks and seven other armored vehicles, military spokesmen said today.

A day-long battle Friday 50 miles northwest of Saigon cost the 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment four tanks—two new 16-ton Sheridans and two 50-ton M48 tanks—plus seven killed and 28 wounded, field reports said.

Later Friday night, three armored personnel carriers were destroyed by fire and four other tracked vehicles were badly damaged when North Vietnamese sappers attacked a "wagon train" circle of tanks and personnel carriers three miles southeast of the demilitarized zone.

Despite the loss of the tanks in the first battle, armored cavalry officers called it a victory. They said 82 enemy bodies were found after the battle.

"It was a good lesson for Charlie. He learned he can't mess around with the Sheridans and get away with it," said Col. Jimmie Leach of Hampton, N.C., commander of the 11th Regiment.

The fighting erupted when units of the regiment ran into a North Vietnamese ambush in Tay Ninh province. The Sheridan tanks, artillery and helicopter gunships pounded the enemy for most of the day.

Maj. John Bronson of Rockledge, Ga., a squadron commander, said the first rocket grenade was fired prematurely by the North Vietnamese attackers "and that enabled us to get them before they could carry out the rest of the ambush."

The 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment and a squadron of the 25th Division are the only two units in Vietnam equipped with Sheridan tanks, which have been undergoing combat evaluation since they arrived in mid-February. So far 10 have been destroyed and several have been damaged in action.

Associated Press correspondent Robert Ohman reported from Cam Lo that 13 Americans were killed and 24 were wounded in the other surprise attack against a defensive circle set up by 9th Regiment Marines and supporting armor of the 1st Brigade, 5th Mechanized Infantry Division.

Rocket-grenades knocked out

three armored personnel carriers in the first minutes of the battle, clearing a path for enemy sappers who raced through and hurled satchel charges at three tanks and 17 other APCs.

Helicopter gunships laid a ring of fire around the embattled troopers until a second troop of tanks and APCs arrived. Then the North Vietnamese withdrew.

A later sweep of the battlefield turned up 13 North Vietnamese dead.

U.S. military spokesmen reported today that North Vietnamese troops have built a series of big concrete gun emplacements into mountainsides along the South Vietnam-Laos border to fire on American and South Vietnamese special forces camps and bases.

The guns are mounted on railroad tracks and protected by

Trip To Asia Pondered

'Plan To Travel A Lot,' President Tells Editors

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon, who hasn't shown the slightest reluctance to travel since taking office, has told members of the American Society of Newspaper Editors he hopes to do a lot more of it—even possibly to Asia.

"We're going to try and get there," was a frequent remark of the President's as he greeted editors from around the nation Friday night during black tie reception at the White House.

A. A. Smyser, editor of the Honolulu Star Bulletin said Nixon told him "he will come the first chance he gets." Nixon later said he had no specific plans on that but Hawaii will be a stop "if I can take a trip to Asia."

A trip to Colorado this summer was "a possibility" the President told reporters.

More immediately, Nixon said he intended to be in Norfolk, Va., next Saturday. His daughter, Tricia, has been chosen 16th queen of the International Azalea Festival.

"I'm going to crown my daughter—unless we have a crisis," the President said.

The editors were ending a week-long session in Washington.

Homes, Buildings Hit By Florida Tornado

MAITLAND, Fla. (AP)—A tornado cut a path of destruction through Maitland and a man drowned off a wind-swamped boat in Orlando today as a growing line of thunderstorms bulled through this Central Florida area.

The body of 23-year-old David M. Dolon was recovered several hours after a boat capsized on Lake Ivanhoe. Five other persons swam to shore and another who clung to the boat was rescued.

The tornado, lashing out of the parade of thunderstorms, collapsed homes and buildings, knocked out power lines, and blocked streets with fallen trees as it skipped through Maitland, touching down three times.

New Jersey, 2 Carriers With Units

Nixon Takes Steps To Back Up Pledge Of 'Protection'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Potent U.S. naval forces, including the battleship New Jersey and possibly a pair of aircraft carriers, were reported steaming to new positions today to provide protection for American intelligence missions off North Korea.

The Pentagon announced redeployment of extensive forces Friday shortly after President Nixon ordered resumption of reconnaissance flights with the promise they will cease to be "fair game" for North Korean jets.

Flights off the North Korean coast were halted Tuesday after an EC121 reconnaissance plane with 31 men aboard apparently was shot down. Only two bodies have been found in the Sea of Japan where the craft fell.

Redeployment of the naval forces was viewed as a protective step rather than a threat of retaliation against North Korea.

The New Jersey, which had been scheduled to arrive in Long Beach, Calif., today after duty off Vietnam, was ordered to turn around and return to the Western Pacific.

While no announcement was made of the strategy to be used in providing protection for the reconnaissance planes, indications were fighters would be stationed where they could come to the swift rescue of any threatened U.S. aircraft. Fighters would be kept in the air during intelligence missions, but not flying wing-to-wing with the reconnaissance aircraft.

Except for the New Jersey, the Pentagon did not say what ships were involved and the announcement stopped short of specifying the new positions actually were in the Sea of Japan. A Defense Department spokesman said only the redeployment involved "a number of different types of vessels."

One carrier believed on the way to the Sea of Japan is the USS Kittyhawk which carries 90 warplanes. The Kittyhawk left Hong Kong with two destroyers earlier this week without any announcement of its destination.

In ordering resumption of the intelligence flights, Nixon pronounced them vital to the security of U.S. troops stationed in South Korea.

Nixon revealed for the first time that the United States is capable of "reading" radar pictures of another country from miles away.

He said both showed that the EC121 was 90 miles offshore—well outside North Korean territory—when shot down.

Military experts said the crew of the EC121 would not have been alarmed immediately by the presence of MIGs, since the North Korean fighters routinely fly over them over international water. The sources said the extensive electronic gear on the plane also would have been concentrating on monitoring North Korean radio tracking rather than watching for approaching aircraft.

Cold Weather Due For Area After Storm

Colder weather, with intermittent rain and snow, is due this evening for the tri-state area in the wake of the rain and wind which struck Friday evening.

Today's high will be in the 40s and tonight's low in the middle 30s.

It will begin turning warmer Sunday, with the high in the 50s.

Increasing cloudiness and warmer is the outlook for Monday.

4 Die, 24 Injured In Apartment Fire

ATLANTIC CITY (AP) — A fire that began on a kitchen stove swept two floors of a luxury, high-rise apartment building Friday night, claiming four lives and injuring 24 others.

Residents of the 12-story Brighton Towers worked to salvage their damaged belongings from their gutted apartments today.

With aerial ladders and fighting a light rainfall, firemen made spectacular rescues from upper floors of the aluminum and glass structure in downtown Atlantic City, only three blocks from the famed Boardwalk.

MANY tenants fled in nightclothes and slippers.

No estimate was made of the damage. The building was said to have cost $3.5 million when constructed in 1964.

Two of the victims were found in the rubble of an elevator stalled between the sixth and seventh floors. Another victim was taken from the 10th floor elevator where she was overcome by smoke.

The dead were identified as Mrs. Marie Falgoutier, 43, Miss Judith Siout, 25, a nurse at Atlantic City Hospital, and Mrs. Marie Andisman, age unknown, who authorities said died of a heart attack.

Identification of the fourth victim was not immediately determined.

Dr. Hayakawa Speaks In Chicago

Use Of Police Advocated To Halt Campus Disorder

CHICAGO (AP) — The acting president of San Francisco State College, Dr. S. I. Hayakawa, says many college professors condemn violence by police but condone violent actions by students.

The man who took a firm stand against disruption on the California campus that was wracked by violence earlier this year urged that college faculties overcome what he termed prejudice against policemen and, instead, support the use of police to quell campus disorders.

Hayakawa addressed Chicago's Executive Club's weekly luncheon meeting Friday and drew a standing ovation at the conclusion of his remarks.

The 1,800 business and professional men, as well as a few wives, also applauded when Hayakawa said:

"He will insist that disturbances be put down."

"Police should not allow on a campus a disorder they would not permit at an airport."

"Academic freedom is the central issue of these times at colleges."

Hayakawa said radical students are making an energetic effort to suppress freedom of speech.

He said that when Negro students create disturbances they have definite goals of improving their people in mind, but, he added, "White radicals have nothing but desperation and revolution in mind."

France And Kuwait Back U.N. Principles

PARIS (AP) — France and oil-rich Kuwait issued a joint communique today agreeing that any peace in the Middle East must conform to the principles of the United Nations.

The communique capped the four-day visit of the crown prince of Kuwait, Sheikh Jaber Al-Ahmed Al-Jaber Al-Sabah. The sheikh conferred with President Charles de Gaulle, Premier Maurice Couve de Murville, Foreign Minister Michel Debre and Defense Minister Pierre Messmer.

25 Trustees 'Locked In' In New Campus Protest

By The Associated Press

Demonstrating students kept 25 trustees locked in a conference room at Atlanta University Center today but protests were ended or suspended at several other major campuses.

Harvard students voted to suspend their strike for seven days after the university agreed to reduce the status of the Reserve Officers Training Corp to an extracurricular activity. Stanford University protesters ended a nine-day sit-in at an electronics lab.

A new protest by a breakaway group of Students for a Democratic Society at Columbia University fizzled when it failed to get any widespread support.

The dissidents at Atlanta University Center, a six-college complex, were demanding that the schools be renamed for Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and that white trustees resign.

One of those locked in was Dr. Hugh M. Gloster, president of Morehouse College, King's alma mater and part of the complex. He said he would resign rather than accede to the demands under duress.

The Rev. Martin Luther King Sr., a Morehouse trustee, walked out of the room Friday declaring his family wanted no part of the tactics protesters were using in seeking to honor his slain son.

In Cambridge, Mass., a mass meeting of 3,500 Harvard students voted 2-1 to suspend the eight-day strike touched off by the arrest of 200 sit-ins at the administration building.

However, SDS members and about 150 black students seeking a large voice in setting up a black studies program, said they would continue the class boycott. Harvard has about 15,000 students, of whom 6,000 are undergraduates.

The strike suspension came after the Harvard Corporation, a seven-man governing board which with the Overseers sets long-range policy, generally endorsed a faculty motion reducing ROTC to extracurricular status.

Stanford's sit-in was ended when university President Kenneth S. Pitzer agreed to keep the building closed to all but maintenance personnel for one week. The students said they would meet again April 26 to decide further moves.

The sit-ins had been protesting military-connected research at the Applied Electronics Laboratory.

At Columbia the latest sit-in was held by dissident members of the SDS who divided over tactics with their fellow radicals. After six hours in Hamilton Hall they left commenting, "Tactically, we made a mistake."

The regular SDS group wants to concentrate on "open enrollment" for Negro graduates of city high schools while the splinter group seeks an end to the ROTC program.

Wind-Driven Water Floods Lake Shore

SANDUSKY, Ohio (AP) — Flooding from Lake Erie due to strong winds forced the evacuation of some 50 homes and flooded another 150 along 25 miles of Erie County Lake shore, the Red Cross reported late Friday night.

No one was reported injured as water driven by 50-mile-per-hour winds flooded basements, washed out roads and deposited lake debris at points including Bayview, Cedar Point, Venice, Rye Beach, Whiles Landing and Crystal Rock.

Albert Gongs, director of the Firelands Red Cross Chapter in Sandusky, said many of the homes were used only in the summer. He said evacuated families were spending the night with relatives or friends.

The Cedar Point Road was reported washed out for two miles with water up to two feet covering it. Several beach cabanas were reported to have been washed away in the area.

One evacuated trailer in Venice was reported to be almost covered by water.

In Vermilion in western Lorain County, workers sandbagged homes against water driven by eight and nine foot waves Vermilion Lagoon.

The Vermilion River was reported to have washed over its banks and flooded basements of several homes but police reported no evacuations.

The coast guard station at Marblehead in Ottawa County reported the weather forecast for Lake Erie called for winds ranging from 36 to 45 miles per hour Friday night and early Saturday, then dropping off to 20 m.p.h.

Several lake points, including Vermilion, reported heavy rains. Many trees were reported down in coastal areas in Huron County.

Termed 'Surprise Attack' 'Different Than Pueblo,' Nixon Says Of Plane Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon says the shooting down of a U.S. reconnaissance plane this week "was a completely surprise attack," pre-empting a different crisis than that faced by President Lyndon Johnson when the USS Pueblo was seized.

Haunted perhaps by a campaign taunt in which he referred to North Korea as "a fourth rate military power," Nixon drew some distinctions Friday between the two incidents.

In his campaign for president last year, Nixon promised he would not allow the nation to suffer another dilemma such as the Jan. 23, 1968, capture of the intelligence ship Pueblo by North Korean patrol boats.

Faced with the downing of the Navy intelligence plane this week, Nixon has chosen—as did Johnson—to follow a course of diplomacy rather than retaliation.

But, Nixon told a White House news conference, the two incidents are not parallel.

He said the Pueblo was threatened in advance. Had there been a similar threat against reconnaissance flights over the Sea of Japan, Nixon said, he would have ordered protective action.

The Pueblo seizure, Nixon said, "was quite different in two respects."

"One, there was some uncertainty for some time as to where the Pueblo was. Present indications are that the Pueblo was in international waters. But there was some uncertainty."

Nixon said there was never any doubt as to the location of the intelligence plane—at least 28 miles outside Korean airspace at its closest approach to the Communist nation.

"Also," he said, "in the case of the Pueblo, the North Koreans had warned and threatened the Pueblo for a period of weeks before they seized it."

He said flights like the one the Koreans shot down have been going on for years without incident.

"Under these circumstances," Nixon said, "it was a completely surprise attack in every sense of the word and therefore

Man, Wife Grilled For Any Spy Ties

LONDON (AP) — An American described as an amiable "country club" type in his 50s with a slight East European accent was being interrogated with his wife Friday night by a Scotland Yard counter-espionage squad.

No charges were filed against the couple and authorities would not disclose their identities or any details of the case.

Senior officials of the U.S. Embassy went to Scotland Yard for discussions with the detectives. British police said they checked with the U.S. Federal Bureau of Investigation before the raid.

More than 50 detectives headed by Scotland Yard Commander Ferguson Smith closed in on the lavish home in the stockbroker belt of London's southern suburbs where the couple lived with their three children.

In 1961 Smith arrested Morris and Lola Cohen, an American couple who were exposed as Soviet spies and jailed for 20 years.

One published report said the couple presently being questioned may originally have been of German nationality but now had U.S. passports. Another report said the raid on their house came as a result of statements made by an East German who had defected to the West.

Neighbors said the couple returned Friday from the United States. They said the police had been watching the house for the past two weeks.

YEAST AND YOUR SEPTIC TANK

Dating from Biblical days, yeast has been one of nature's most valuable aids, yet was an enigma. Yeast's ability to create reactions in hops and other fermentable materials was a mystery which baffled chemists over the centuries, and only in recent years have our modern scientists discovered that yeast cells produce enzymes which affect starches and sugars, creating alcohol as one of the end products. This is why yeast is so invaluable to the brewing industry.

Yeast also has many other uses, such as the leavening of bread, etc., and, in the past, has been used widely as an aid to the operation of septic tanks. Even today, many rural home owners persist in the addition of yeast to their sewage systems.

To understand the effect of yeast on a sewage system, it must be clearly understood that THE ENZYMES IN YEAST WILL ONLY WORK ON STARCHES AND SUGARS. In the early part of this century, home baking and canning contributed greatly to the starch and sugar content of sewage waste, and the addition of yeast was of some definite advantage. However, today's housewife purchases most of her bread, cake and canned foods from the market and studies of the nature of today's waste show a marked INCREASE in fats and greases, with a DECREASE in sugars and starches. The addition of quantities of yeast to today's system can actually create problems, since with nothing to work on, the yeast will pass into the drainage areas and create a clogging condition. Yeast also creates a gaseous condition which prevents the sewage from settling in the tank, and uses up valuable oxygen, necessary to bacterial digestion.

Today's smart homeowner uses SEA-CAL ENZYMES to correct and prevent sewage problems. Scientifically developed for today's waste systems, SEA-CAL contains the correct balance of enzymes to maintain top operating efficiency in septic tank and cesspool systems. SEA-CAL is the MODERN treatment for MODERN sewage systems.

"how British universities worked a hundred years ago."

Education Program A Casualty

The decision by Gov. James A. Rhodes to back away from the tax-education package during this session of the General Assembly is the best example of the present mood of Ohioans regarding taxes as you are likely to find.

The expand education program with special attention devoted to development of technical-vocational education for Ohio students has no more enthusiastic supporter than Gov. Rhodes.

HE HAS BEEN beating the drums all over the state in behalf of vocational-technical training for students who do not wish a college education.

We have supported the governor's position and still believe it will have to be implemented before Ohio can say it is providing a comprehensive education program for all its students. A lot of Ohioans share the view held by Gov. Rhodes.

The crunch comes in getting the money to pay for the massive vocational education program.

Taxpayers have had it up to the ears with new taxes. Gov. Rhodes read public opinion correctly and decided it would be better to come back with the program later than to get it knocked off by legislators who are being told by the folks back home to "forget new taxes."

The couple of proposed bills that call for a mandatory income tax are going to have tough sledding also.

Animosity is directed toward taxation, not education, and any tax measure is not going to be popular.

Finance Director Howard L. Collier said a comprehensive study of the state's finances will be completed before any new administration taxes are proposed.

IT IS SAD but true that the taxpayers' dissatisfaction includes federal taxes but they can only bring pressure to bear on local and state tax measures—those which would provide the largest degree of benefit for their state and community.

The education program is a casualty of growing taxpayer disenchantment.

Anti-SDS Movement Takes Shape

A new phase in campus unrest is beginning to take form and it could be the best thing that has happened to the right of dissent in a long time.

Students formerly apathetic to violent, disruptive actions of campus activists have started a counterrevolution.

Their aim is to thwart activities of organizations like Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) when their campaigns to remake universities resort to violence or interrupt the learning process of other students.

SDS chapters on various campuses around the country share a common goal — pull down the system. Current attacks on Reserve Officers Training Corps (ROTC) at a variety of universities is an example of a coordinated program.

Students like the several hundred Kent State University fraternity members who demonstrated in behalf of the administration this week are fed up with SDS activists.

Harvard students protested mob takeover of the university's administration building by burning an effigy representing the SDS.

The anti-SDS movement will no doubt grow if members of the militant student organization persist in the use of illegal and violent tactics.

Since the anti-SDS crusade is in its early stages, it is difficult to assess its impact. However, it appears that it is not meant to squelch dissent as such but to protest methods.

Some of the students lined up against campus revolutionaries share some of the concerns of their adversaries, but they do not believe that reform will come through destruction.

They don't want the right of dissent to suffer because of an overreaction to SDS outbursts that would bring about a police-state atmosphere on campus with stringent regulations aimed at a few students but affecting all students.

If anti-SDS students are able to bring off their program, they will be striking a blow in defense of dissent.

High Cost Of Medical Care

"Physicians are not always available when and where they are needed; costs are rising more rapidly than in any other sector of the economy; care is unevenly distributed; hospitals, often obsolete, duplicate each other's services. In short, the system is not operating smoothly."

These are not the judgments of an alien critic. The quotation is from Harvard Today, written by Dr. Robert H. Ebert, dean of Harvard's Medical School.

The American Medical Association in a two-day meeting opening in Chicago Friday will take up "the financial realities and problems of health care changing cost-price patterns, and health care financing in the 1970s."

The AMA News notes that the cost of health care rose in January to 150.2 per cent of the 1957-59 average. This was an increase of 0.7 from the previous month and a rise of 6.4 per cent from January 1968. In the same year the consumer price index as a whole rose 4.7 per cent.

HOSPITAL COSTS have been rising at a rate of about 15 per cent a year, as against forecasts of only about 7 per cent when Medicare was passed in 1965. Since 1966, the American Hospital Association reported recently, the average hospital's cost of caring for one patient one day has risen to $63.97 from $24.15.

It now costs more than $29,000 per bed to build and equip a hospital properly. Eight years ago the cost per bed was $19,956. Costs are pushed still higher by the growing complexity of medical equipment.

One result is that many hospitals are merging to pool costs and equipment. Since 1962, the Hospital Association estimates, there have been 96 hospital mergers. The first half of 1968 alone saw 20 of these marriages of convenience.

As Harvard's Dean Ebert was quick to point out: "Science and methodology have made it possible to treat more and more diseases successfully, to prevent others and to prolong life. This progress has also profoundly complicated the practice of medicine and significantly altered the physician's role." It has tremendously increased the sheer burden of medical costs.

It has greatly added to the pressure for hospital beds and space in nursing homes. It has prompted a growing trend toward—usually more costly—specialization of practice.

To some rather minor extent doctors have been able to ease the burden on patients by group practice arrangements. Congress in 1966 authorized Federal Housing Administration insurance for equipment and financing of group medical, optometrical and dental practice.

BUT MUCH OF THE HEAVIER expense is accounted for by doctors' fees. The U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare in a recent report put average net profits of all physicians in 1966 at $25,600. This was as against average net profit of $8,625 reported in 1945.

Dr. H. H. Trimble, in Texas Medicine, suggests that doctors recommend hospitalization only when necessary—and not just because health insurance will pay for it—and exercise restraint in the fees they charge. Significantly, he suggests that if the medical profession polices itself, "we can prevent third parties from controlling our method of practice."

Musings From Max

By MARTIN MILLER

Let us pause for a moment and offer a bit of sympathy to major league pitchers who are starting this year's work with two strikes on them—a lower pitching mound and a smaller strike zone.

Everything is supposed to be getting easier these days but here are the pitchers with a tougher task in getting the ball where it belongs. The pitchers' loss is the batters' gain. Our team is still losing.

Always trying to be ahead of its time, this department recommends the establishment now of a planning commission for space before it becomes overcrowded and starts deteriorating.

There always are thousands of pieces of "garbage" floating around out there, the parts of rockets and satellites which were launched in recent years.

Now plans are to put platforms and vehicles out in space and build on them in a haphazard manner. Don't wait. Set up a zoning commission for space immediately. Tomorrow may be too late.

Space isn't limitless, is it?

Meanwhile, back here in the dooryard on earth the birds scream at the cat every time she ventures within view. And the cat reciprocates, naturally, by flattening her ears back against her head, snarling and lashing her tail about in a fearsome manner. Neither side has made a move toward a lasting peace.

Communists prevented a Czech chess master who had criticized the regime from going to Britain to participate in a chess tournament. But then, if memory serves, the United States upon occasion has refused to issue a passport to a dissident or two to travel to a communist country.

Student violence on campuses at last seems to have stirred up a backlash from the so-called Establishment. Several educators have finally joined the fray for law and order.

Here is a quote from a new book, "College Curriculum and Student Protest" by Joseph J. Schwab: The few student violence leaders are "... vicious demagogues and corn-belt storm troopers bent on attaining a following by kicking their father surrogates in the teeth. . . . They combine ignorance of worldly conditions, handicaps of appearance and manner, considerable native ability and equally considerably interpersonal incompetence in such a fashion as to produce an enormous greed for power and prestige, an infinite capacity for generating righteous indignation, and the entire correct conviction that only the destruction of public faith in legality and the shattering of social order will produce the success to which they are sure they are entitled."

Great Britain may be going down hill on a fast freight but the British are still in there pitching. A bunch of them recently tried to ski 470 miles to the North Pole, presumably simply because it is there, like a mountain. With temperatures as low as 58 below zero they covered 90 miles before they gave up and were picked up by a plane. Better to have tried to ski to the North Pole and failed than never to have tried at all. Hm-m-m.

Next time you read that civilization is man against nature just remember that man is part of nature. That is what the book said. I can't figure it out, either.

'Just Keep It Warmed Up?'

VICTOR RIESEL

Black Panthers Roam Free

NEW YORK — East Side, West Side, all around this garbage-strewn town, teachers have been whipped, robbed and hounded; their cars looted and stripped; their classrooms blackened with the smoke of arsonists' fires; their supervisors and principals terrorized and forced out; their leaders harassed by horror squads, and parents of their young students threatened with violent death.

And this is understatement. If the United Federation of Teachers (AFL-CIO), America's largest local union, hits this city with a fourth strike, let the record here disclose the travail and heartaches of its 57,000 members. But for the grace of fate this could be the story of any group of the nation's 50 million youngsters, 2 million teachers and professional staff people and 100,000 school board members.

Let the record show that at this moment there are 47 principals and assorted supervisors who have been driven from their schools by tiny, centrally controlled, bands of terrorists — generally calling themselves Black Panthers. These hit-and-ruin squads harass supervisors and teachers of all races, colors and creeds.

THE INVADING BANDS have driven off black instructors. Two "Panthers" threatened to kill a courageous Puerto Rican parent leader, Mrs. Georgina Hoggard, if she bucked their efforts to take over the schools in her district — P.S. 34 and P.S. 60. This fiery lady is fighting back and willingly put her charge on tape for me.

Many of the roving bands emanate from some of the antipoverty community action agencies here, according to the Council of Supervisory Associations (school principals, etc.).

In effect, the terrorists carry a big pork barrel. They want the jobs for their allies. If the principals don't take the truly bloody hint, the extremists move in. At one school, they pushed a desk into the principal's office, nailed a sign on the wall above it reading "principal," installed one of their own and physically drove the legal principal out of the building.

Now he is with the 46 other high officials — sitting idly in the Board of Education's central office over in Brooklyn, or filling in at schools where regular principals are ill or on sabbatical. Or doing glorified clerical work somewhere in the system.

The supervisors organization and the teachers union — forgetting class lines — fight back in a united front.

"Five or six people can walk into a school," says United Federation of Teachers 40-year-old president Al Shanker, "and take over. Thus unqualified persons get the principals' jobs. They know that their tactics can force the central Board of Education to hand out $20,000 to $30,000 jobs just under this sort of pressure alone."

What pressure?

THERE IS THE typical case of one principal in the residential borough of Queens — not generally the center of extremist action. The lives of this principal and his family were threatened. He was assaulted and abused on racial and religious grounds. His car was vandalized twice. Then he was robbed at knife point. The local police captain warned he was a marked man. He left the school.

Another principal, a woman, was told by the militants she would enter the school only over their "dead bodies." Then the extremists physically barred the doors. She was moved in by the police, who forcibly removed the Panthers from the entrance. She's fighting back. Not for long, probably.

Another principal was told not to return — or his blood would flow in the streets outside the school. He did not return.

Thus reads the case histories of most of the 47 principals, assistant principals and supervisors.

Recently a New York State Dept. of Education observer was badly beaten. He quit observing.

IT IS JUST as grim for the teachers. The special "overseer" commission appointed to end the first strike reports 500 cases of justifiable complaints of terror. Some weeks ago, two teachers were heading for their cars. The roving band got to them. They had been warned not to report. One instructor was knocked down, kicked and then whipped by the metal radio antenna ripped from his car.

Thus — the exodus across the Hudson River. Al Shanker, still resilient, reports that thousands of New York teachers are applying for jobs as far west as San Francisco.

By next September, he expects a deficit of 23,500 teachers in this city. There now are 400 teacherless classrooms. The old reservoir of 3,000 substitutes has evaporated. For example, out of the original 350 who were in the controversial ghetto area known as Ocean Hill-Brownville, only 60 remain.

"This fall we face the greatest exodus of any cultural groups this country has seen," says Shanker. "We expect that 20,000 will not return to the system after the summer holiday. There are daily school-by-school incidents inflamed by extremists who move in and demand the ouster of principals and teachers. We may have to strike, though we know that another strike would just hasten the exodus of white and black teachers from this city."

This may be the year of the Panther — some of its defectors call it a black Klu Klux Klan. If it is such a year, men such as Mr. Shanker and his colleagues fear it will be the beginning of the era of the death of mass education in our land for youngsters of all races, colors and creeds — East coast, West coast, all around the country.

DAVID LAWRENCE

The Risks Of War

WASHINGTON — Wishful thinkers have been saying that there's no danger of American involvement in any more wars and that people in this country need not worry about what is happening overseas.

But suddenly the shooting down of an American airplane by North Korea at a point at least 50 miles from its coast, with the loss of crewmen aboard, is a grim reminder that America's enemies have by no means abandoned their evil ways.

It is a flagrant violation of international law for any plane flying over the high seas to be shot down many miles from a seacoast. Aircraft and ships, armed or unarmed, have the right to travel across oceans without being subject to attack. Reconnaissance planes and ships of the Soviet Union are constantly cruising much closer than 50 miles away from our own Pacific Coast.

IF WANTON ATTACKS continue, it will become more important for the United States to seek an immediate agreement with the Communist countries on freedom of the seas and the air than to concentrate on talks about keeping nuclear weapons from being manufactured by nonnuclear countries.

As Sen. Everett Dirksen of Illinois, Republican leader, has just said, there is no reason to advocate military reprisal at present. But it is imperative that the problem raised by the attack on our airplane by the North Koreans be dealt with promptly by "negotiations."

Sen. Strom Thurmond, Republican of South Carolina, thinks a naval fleet should be sent at once to the area where the plane was downed. Chairman Mendel Rivers of the House Armed Services Committee favors immediate retaliation.

Unfortunately, parleys with the North Koreans have proved fruitless, as happened when the "Pueblo," an American naval vessel, was seized and her crew imprisoned and tortured for several months last year.

The all-important fact is that back of North Korea is either Red China or the Soviet Union or both. There would be no deliberate creation of tension if it were not for the influence of the Communist regimes in Moscow or Peking.

The United States government will be faced with more and more episodes threatening an entanglement in war unless the Soviets and the Red Chinese realize the danger of allowing their puppet allies — like North Korea — to stir up trouble at will.

The Communist strategy back of it all is, of course, obvious. The idea is that, if the United States can become embroiled in another war with North Korea, the American government would find itself compelled to spend larger and larger sums of money and perhaps divert its troops from the war in Southeast Asia.

Japan has thus far stayed aloof from the Vietnam conflict but it would appear logical that Japan would join America in a plan to assure peace in the Far East. Australia and the Philippines would surely do likewise.

The Red Chinese are the ones who will lose a great deal by their encouragement of the North Koreans. The United States, in recent months, has been urged by many groups in this country to "build bridges of friendship" with the people of Red China.

But the latest trouble with North Korea will discourage such efforts unless some way can be found to get Peking to co-operate in restraining further acts of aggression.

It is doubtful whether North Korea would take any step — especially the seizure of an American warship or the shooting down of a reconnaissance plane — without a previous understanding with Moscow or Peking.

THE WHOLE SITUATION is indicative of the risks of war that are prevalent in different parts of the world. Certainly there will not be a diminution but an increase in crises if the United States appears irresolute or indifferent to attacks on its own ships and planes.

What is ironic is that the United Nations, which was supposed to rehabilitate the battered principles of international law and set up a system of collective security in the world, failed to take action in the "Pueblo" affair or in setting the Vietnam War.

One wonders how many more acts of aggression will be committed against American ships and planes in international waters before the U.N. will decide to do something about it.

MOMENT OF MEDITATION

The Bride Of Christ

"Husbands love your wives even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish." Eph. 5:25-27.

In the preceding verses the Apostle Paul uses the husband and wife relationship to point out some very important facts about Christ and His church. First, it can be clearly seen that as a husband is to have just one wife, so Christ has just one bride or church. Surely no one will accuse Christ of bigamy. The Bible nowhere gives authority for the many churches that exist. Christ only built one. (Mt. 16:18) He has only one bride!

The charge is commonly made that when a person contends for just one church he is narrow minded and thinks he is the only one right and everyone else is wrong. This charge is false. To the contrary, the Bible is right and when we differ with God and His Word, we are wrong. The Bible teaches clearly for all to see, that Jesus has just one church or body. Eph. 4:4 For us to contend otherwise puts us in direct opposition to God and His Word. Modern denominationalism as we have it today, did not even exist in the days of the Apostles. Christ built one church and the Apostles and brethren went about trying to get men and women everywhere to accept Christ and to become a part of the one body of Christ. Paul was not interested in one church and Peter interested in another. John did not urge people to become a part of some human denomination. They all worked together in an effort to exalt Christ and His church. When Philip went preaching to the people of Samaria, he preached unto them, Christ. In telling them about Christ, he told them about the kingdom of Christ. (Acts 8:5; Acts 8:12) Notice that Philip did not tell them to go join the "kingdom" of your choice. He told them about one kingdom and they believed him and were baptized into that kingdom. The kingdom and the church are the same thing. (Mt. 16:18, 19). Thus, these people did not become a part of any denomination but they became members of the Church of Christ. He only had one church for them to be members of.

In our article today we have seen that the church is referred to as the bride of Christ. He only has one bride. The church is called the body of Christ. He only has one body. The church is referred to as the kingdom. Christ is a king over His Kingdom. Are you in Christ's church?

To Be Repeated Tonight

Senior Play Proves Hit With Comedy Highlights

Clanking pipes, flashing lights and jets of steam provided an exciting climax to the Friday night presentation of the East Liverpool High senior play, "Who Was That Lady I Saw You With?" The eight different scenes of the play were located at just about every accessible area of the large stage of the new auditorium facility.

The play concerns the efforts of an assistant chemistry professor to prove to his wife that a young foreign exchange student's kissing him was purely innocent. With the aid of his friend, a TV writer, they fabricate the story that they are FBI agents and that the girl was a spy.

The plot gets complicated when the real FBI, led by an agent with a bad case of ulcers, becomes involved. Foreign agents enter the picture, and the results add up to an evening of hilarity.

Herb Purton gave an in-depth performance as the chemistry professor who was especially humorous when bugged by the two spies, played very well by Ken Johnson and Don Hancock. Gretchen Gaston capably portrayed the part of the wife who is the target of all the little white lies. Steve Pickin played the cynical TV writer excellently, his many facial expressions adding much to the play.

Mike Grimes was hit in his role of the long-suffering FBI agent who existed on a steady diet of Tums. Jim Musuraca and George Manning aided him in his futile attempt to keep the situation from becoming public.

The scene in the restaurant, featuring Yuko Takebayashi, ELHS's exchange student, and attractive Sue Satow and Amy Cartwright, was a highlight of the play.

Rounding out the cast are Oliver Spencer, Tom Gooding, Bob Pelley, Nancy Hopper, Kirk McCall, Jayne Ann Kyle, Diana Lerch, and Chris Conrad.

The play, under the direction of Keith Langdon and James Martin, will be repeated tonight at 8 in the auditorium. Tickets will be available at the door.

Mental Health Aide Urges 'Prevention' As Key Effort

"Good Mental Health — Like Charity — Begins at Home" was the topic presented at the 15th annual dinner meeting of the Child Counseling Center by George W. Watson, Chief of Mental Health Education in Columbus, Wednesday night.

The dinner at the Trinity United Presbyterian Church was attended by 123.

Watson said, "We are engaged in a highly essential effort, but one that lacks the sensational elements of many areas of physical medicine."

He stated "It was possible we have all concerned ourselves too much with healing and not enough with prevention. We should think of early recognition of potential danger signals and seek the opportunity for dignified investigation of these danger signs."

"No one should be unnecessarily embarrassed, but should receive understanding and courteous treatment — expert and scientifically correct help," he told the group. "This is no place for the do-gooder."

He stated the need is great for aid for the middle class who are too proud to ask for help, and the community program should be for everyone. He mentioned the "too busy parents" — doing too much running around to be good parents at home. Children need the "father figure," he added.

Efforts aimed primarily at children and their welfare are especially difficult and require a deep sense of dedication and responsibility — they call for a committed, united approach, Watson said.

Mrs. Lilian Alpern, president, welcomed the guests. The Rev. H. Gene Toot gave the invocation. Officers and guests were introduced by Mrs. Alpern. Comments of the center's growth and value to the community were given by Cornell Monda, psychologist at the center.

Mrs. Margaret Thompson, a local teacher, was recognized for attending all 15 annual dinners.

H. Thayer Allison reported that new directors elected are Mrs. Elmer Eiferd, Mrs. Jay Dysert and Richard Martin.

Judge Louis Tobin introduced the speaker.

Mrs. J. Donald Thompson and Mrs. Marie Hays were in charge of the dinner arrangements. Mrs. Paul Davis was chairman of table decorations.

Mrs. Edith Martsoff, administrator of the Robert Bycroft School for Retarded Children near Lisbon, had displays of arts and crafts by the children of the school.

Miss Elizabeth Coleman and Miss Kathleen Potter were in charge of dinner tickets and the Women's association of the church served the dinner.

Pittsburgher Due Hearing In Fight

A Pittsburgh man was charged with disorderly conduct following a fight near Pop's Tavern at 17th and Main Sts. in Wellsville at 11:45 p.m. Friday.

Clement Costanzo Jr. was later treated at City Hospital for cuts of the right index finger and scalp.

Costanzo was arrested by Wellsville police and posted $50 bond for a later hearing.

Thomas Grafton of Hammondsville was fined $23.70 by Mayor William Daugherty today on a charge of failure to have his vehicle under control. Grafton was cited following a chain-type four - car collision in Wellsville Thursday.

West Virginia Hit Hard By Wind, Rain

An early summer - like wind and rain storm struck West Virginia Friday evening, uprooting trees, overturning house trailers and causing thousands of dollars worth of damage.

The 60-mile-an-hour winds were gone this morning, but the U. S. Weather Bureau says showers will continue. Temperatures today are expected to range to only 56-64 degrees — almost 20 degrees below the highs of the past couple of days.

The high winds gusted up to 60 miles an hour in some places. St. Albans, west of Charleston, appeared among the hardest hit areas. Roofs were blown off buildings and cars crushed by falling trees.

Power and telephone service was interrupted in St. Albans and in Spencer, northwest of Charleston in Roane County.

Two FMC Co. employees working in the power room of the South Charleston plant were burned in an accident when power to the plant was knocked out.

In neighboring Kentucky, authorities at Bowling Green reported hail stones the size of golf balls.

Reminder Given On Tax Deadline

LISBON — Auditor Kenneth Bell reminds Columbiana County residents of the April 30 deadline for filing personal property tax returns in his office at the Courthouse.

The tax is required of all residents owning intangible property, regardless of its use, such as stocks, bonds, notes, debentures and credit balances with brokers, and of individuals, partnerships, associations and corporations engaged in business, such as manufacturers, merchants, farmers, lawyers, doctors, dentists, accountants and others.

Mandatory penalties and additional charges are provided by statute for persons filing late. Tax forms and assistance in filing may be obtained at his office, Bell said.

Two Resolutions Set For Council

Council will consider two pieces of legislation Monday night — one a fund transfer and the other authorizing the city to enter into a contract for so-called "blanket bonding."

Solicitor J. Michael Kapp said members will consider transferring $1,000 from the police salary fund to another for police overtime.

The second resolution would authorize Safety - Service Director Robert Vodrey to enter into a contract with the Hartford Insurance Co. to provide the public employees "blanket bond" for a three-year period at a cost of $619.

Kapp said the bonding measure, already given approval by Council during a meeting two weeks ago, will save the municipality about $3,000.

Four Jailed In Riot Case

KENT, Ohio (AP) — Four persons were in Portage County Jail at Ravenna Friday night following their arrest by the Ohio Highway Patrol on charges of inciting to riot.

The four part of a group of 58 persons arrested following a demonstration Wednesday at Kent State University, were identified as Edward "Rick" Erickson, 24, of Akron; Howie Emmer, 22, of Cleveland; George Gibeau, 20, of North Randall; and Collin Neiburger, 19, of Baltimore, Md.

The first three were identified as Kent State students. Neiburger was reportedly registered at the school during winter quarter.

Earlier Friday all 58 arrested Wednesday pleaded innocent in Portage Municipal Court and were granted continuances. All were charged with trespassing except one person charged with resisting arrest.

They were arrested after they allegedly broke into a campus building where a closed judicial hearing stemming from an earlier demonstration was being held.

A university spokesman said two other persons, one a student, were also being sought on inciting to riot warrants.

Friday afternoon, some 4,000 of the university's 18,000 students marched in support of an ultimatum giving the school until Monday to meet student demands or face a possible strike.

Demands, submitted by a new student group called Concerned Citizens Committee, include the lifting of all charges and suspensions levied against the persons arrested Wednesday and reinstatement of Kent's chapter of Students for a Democratic Society. The actions, the group said, violate the student conduct code.

The marchers, in a column five abreast, wound around the campus guided by students and faculty wearing armbands. There were no incidents during the march.

Demands and the deadline had been agreed upon at a meeting of 1,500 students earlier Friday at the student union.

A student spokesman said "there will be no San Francisco State" if a strike were to be called, implying that boycotting students would not harass non-striking students or attempt to keep them from attending classes.

A faculty senate meeting Friday gave strong endorsement to President Robert I. White in handling recent campus demonstrations. The resolution, signed earlier as a petition by 475 faculty members, stated "its strong approval for the efforts made by the president and his staff to maintain an orderly campus."

Another motion called for the senate's executive committee to meet as soon as possible with student government leaders to discuss the campus situation.

A university spokesman said two student disciplinary hearings were held Friday, both in closed session at the students' request.

The Fingers Game

Thatsa 'Morra!'

By NORMA J. LIBERATORE

Members of the Midland area "morra" league are looking forward to the annual picnic and awards presentation June 1 at the Midland Sportsmen's farm.

Trophies will be given to the championship team which includes John (Moose) Uccellini, captain; Dan Santia, Henry Verzella, Rocco Ciancone, John Cindrich, Henry Castelli, Francis Deramo and James Cerasi.

The "fingers" game is descended from ancient Rome. It has been around for 2,500 years, although there seems to be no material evidence. Old Romans knew the game league plays four quarters for 20 weeks — five weeks to a quarter. Each team to get the first 24 points wins the match. Two or three game matches were played each night so one team could win six points.

Although Italian words are used, the game is not limited to those of Italian descent. There are many nationalities in the league. All that is needed is a keen mind and the talent to outguess one's opponent. Age is no drawback.

"Otto!"

as "micatio". In fact, a Roman phrase for indicating a man's integrity was, "You could play micatio with him in the dark."

The game has been forbidden by law in Italy, in an effort to reduce fights as well as control gambling. Scarcely anyone pays attention to the law, and morra continues toward the 21st century.

ITALIAN WORDS are used for the different numbers that are shouted by the players, who are lined up along a table in teams.

The words that are used include, Due (two); Tre (three); Quattro (four); Cinque (five); Sei (six); Sette (seven); Otto (eight); Nova (nine) and Dieci (ten). Uno (one), of course, is not needed.

The game, brought to this country many years ago, has had a rebirth in Midland in the form of the league which was formed by Uccellini. The table and shout out the numbers — especially when one man wins points over several opponents.

Two players throw out their hands above the table with fingers extended and shout a number as a guess to total of both players' fingers. The players can use from two to five fingers for totals from two to ten. The player who guesses the correct total wins the point.

In the event both players call the same total, they keep playing until only one guesses correctly.

The word "morra" means all or total, so when a player calls morra he has won the point. After a night of this, there are often many sore arms.

Members of the league pay dues each week, with the money used to buy trophies and sponsor the picnic. The only real stipulation the group has is — no women! It's strictly stag.

You And The Law

If someone fails to meet the terms of a contract he has with you, you may sue him. This is a civil action.

A person charged with robbery will face a criminal action in court.

Civil actions and criminal actions are the two main categories for all court actions.

BASICALLY, civil actions are those in which a person, business or other agency seeks to get compensation or other relief from another person, business or agency. The most common civil action is a lawsuit for damages arising from an auto accident.

A civil action is generally brought either for breach of contract or for a negligent or willful wrong — such as the auto accident — which is known as a tort. Tort is a French word meaning "wrong."

In the civil case, the person filing the charge is known as the plaintiff. The person being charged is the defendant. There can be more than one plaintiff and defendant in a case.

IN A criminal case, the action is brought by a government agency — city, state or federal. Here, the government agency becomes the prosecution and the accused the defendant.

There are two general types of crimes which may be charged. A felony is one in which the crime is punishable by imprisonment for more than a year or by death. A misdemeanor is a crime for which punishment is imprisonment for less than a year. There may be fines involved in some instances.

In the civil case, the plaintiff must prove his case by a "preponderance of the evidence" for conviction. In a criminal case, the prosecution must prove the defendant guilty "beyond a reasonable doubt" for a conviction.

In a civil case, either par-

The Verse Box

First Robin?

Say thou not the Robins sing
Today to, usher in the Spring;
The cadence of the Robin's song
Has not been absent Winter long.

His fewer chirps were not the tune
We came to know and love in June --
But lo' (like us) all birds of feather
Cannot leave here for pleasant weather ...

Some there are who must remain
To hold the fort; patrol the plain;
Make sure that everything's in order
For the strictly Summer boarder!

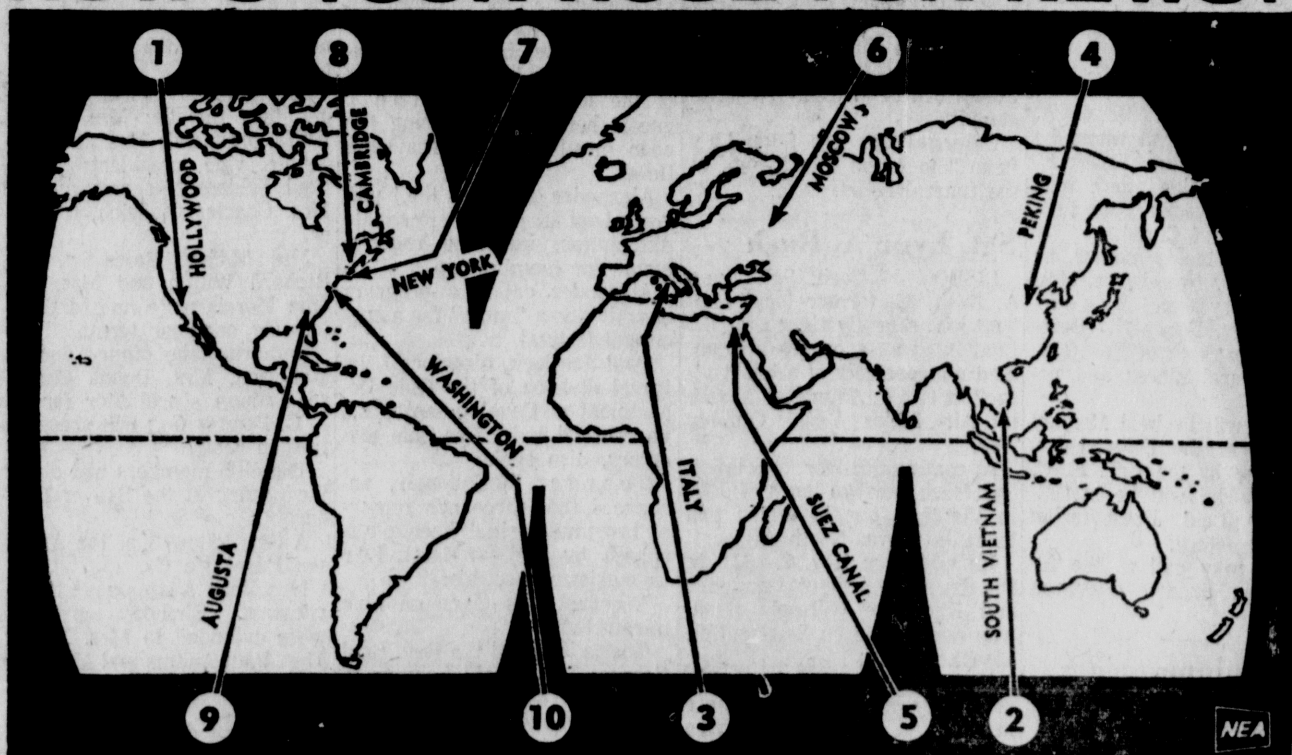

These perch back, tongues in cheeks,
A knowing look upon their beaks
And listen to the word of mouth
Of the brash newcomer from the South!

And those who hear this loud oration
About that Winter-long vacation,
Confuse his with the Voice of Spring
Because he has the nerve to sing!

The poor old jaded Winter dweller --
Is a sad and faded little feller --
Who would hark, if from tree or rocks,
HE held forth about the Equinox?

Stamps In The News

A simple design of a mission bellry will appear on a new 6-cent U.S. stamp commemorating the 200th anniversary of the settlement of California. First-day ceremonies will be on July 16 in San Diego where in 1769 a Spanish expedition under Gov.

Gaspar de Portola, accompanied by Father Junipero Serra, began colonization.

The Mission of Carmel was established in 1770 and reconstructed in the 1870s. Framing a blue sky is the light brown sandstone edifice in which six bells are set. The dominant bell in the foreground is light brown and the five smaller bells are dark brown. At the top in red capitals is "California." Beneath the state's name are the dates 1769-1969.

Although California has been a land under many flags — Spain, Mexico, Sovereign (independent) and U.S. — no indication of such history or its present status as the largest state in the union (come next census) appears. The simplicity of the design is refreshing and in good taste.

Collectors desiring first-day

cancellations may send addressed envelopes, together with remittance to cover the cost of the stamps to be affixed, to the Postmaster, San Diego, Calif. 92101. The outside envelope should be endorsed "First Day Covers 6c California Bicentennial Stamp." Requests must be postmarked no later than July 16.

THE REPUBLIC of China on Formosa commemorates the "Tenth National Congress of Kuomintang" by issuing two new stamps for the occasion, reports the World Wide Philatelic Agency. Both stamps bear designs recalling the early history of the republic on the mainland.

The $1 shows the Chung Shan Building at Mt. Hangmin. A drawn sun, emblem of the Kuomintang, appears in the upper left. The $2.50 depicts side - by - side portraits of Dr. Sun Yat-sen, father of the republic, and President Chiang Kai-shek.

Odd Facts

The name Canada is derived from the Huron - Iroquois "Kanata," meaning "village, lodge, collection of tents."

Octavius, Roman emperor of 29 B.C., had a private zoo containing 420 tigers, 260 lions and 600 other African animals, including cheetahs, panthers, elephants and 36 crocodiles.

The Younger Set

BUSY SIGNAL at the phone company — A multi-million dollar drain is the abuse of "information please." Skyrocketing costs of "directory service" have many phone companies plugging like demons the idea, "use your directory, use your yellow pages." Sometime, somehow, social security numbers will become telephone numbers. Will also become charge card numbers. The impersonalization prospects are terrifying, but the present system is in the horse-and-buggy era of computerization. Sympathize a little with the phone guys. Use your directory!! But wait, hey there, telephone companies . . . what are you doing about providing groovy personal phone number books, possibly combined with a calendar? Nothing! In a way the communications gap shows widest in the government-riddled and regulated utility field.

STUDENT VS. STUDENT confrontation — Peer opposition to disruption and violence is finally blossoming. Majority of high school and college students oppose attempts to disrupt the academic process. "Good guys" have lacked organization and are still intimidated by the more militant groups. Signs are now flying that indicate the student majority is fed up and ready to move. Student leaders and athletes are banding together to resist the educational slowdown they resent. Look for increased student vs. student clashes to take the pressure off school officials and the police.

LOOSE PRESCRIPTION crackdown — Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs is stepping up pressure on doctors and pharmacists involved in the widespread abuse of the present prescription system. Huge quantities of amphetamines and barbiturates via loose practices of doctors in prescribing and druggists in filling, even "overfilling," now under scrutiny. Hoped-for corrective measures aimed at manufacturer and wholesale level. "Dangerous Substance" act, now under consideration as a bill to be introduced in Congress, would license all manufacturers and distributors of covered drugs. This would include pharmacies.

THE AIRLINES STEAM — Youthfare continues as a major "can't live with, can't live without" dilemma. Major brow-wrinkler for airline execs has been the devious and dishonest way teen fliers have abused the half-fare regulation. Multiple fraudulent "reservations" to insure availability of a seat have been a huge and expensive reality for airlines to face. New cheating techniques involve adults using teen fronts at the ticket and gate counters. Once validated, the half-fare traveler hands over the ticket to the adult accomplice. Until recently the passenger merely flashed a boarding pass to the stewardess or gate agent. New practices color-code and in other ways distinguish youthfare passengers. Fares fair! There's too much at stake for all of teendom for young America to be cat's paw for full-fare flyers. Youthfares are a great lift for teens and airlines. Honesty is needed to keep the golden goose alive and healthy.

Outdoor Notes

Ohio's parks, forests and wildlife areas will observe Open House April 27, Fred E. Morr, Ohio Department of Natural Resources director has announced.

"We welcome this opportunity of showing Ohioans the strides we have made in improving and expanding Ohio's facilities for outdoor recreation and resource management," said Morr. "Families out driving are urged to stop for an interesting visit at any park, forest or wildlife area."

Uniformed personnel, from the Divisions of Parks and Recreation, Wildlife, and Forestry and Reclamation, will be on hand to answer questions, and to hand out informational folders and sheets to help visitors plan summer vacations and outdoor weekends. These will include the two new directories — one listing state lodges and cabins; the other showing camp sites and camping information.

"This year we have something to offer for boat owners," said Melvin J. Rebholz, Division of Parks and Recreation chief. "All the locks will be open on the Muskingum River from Dresden in Muskingum County to Marietta in Washington County, a 93-mile stretch giving access to the Ohio River, the Mississippi and the Gulf."

The 10 locks were rebuilt and are being operated by the Division after they were turned over to the state by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

At eight of the locks the Department of Natural Resources has constructed picnic parks with drinking water, sanitary and parking facilities. Four of these parks have launching ramps — at No. 11 in Muskingum County, at No. 6 and No. 5 locks in Morgan County, and at No. 4 at Beverly in Washington County.

THE DIVISION OF PARKS and Recreation has scheduled hikes for 10 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. on Open House Day, to be led by naturalists at Hueston Woods State Park in Preble and Butler Counties, and at Beaver Creek State Park near East Liverpool in Columbiana County.

Three Fish Farms and two Wildlife Areas will make special arrangements to welcome visitors on Open House Day according to Dan Armbruster, Chief, Division of Wildlife.

They are Akron Fish Farm and District Headquarters in Summit County, Kincaid Fish Farm at Sinking Springs, Pike County; Grand Lake St. Mary's Fish Farm in Mercer County; Magee Marsh Wildlife Area on Route 2 west of Port Clinton in Ottawa County, and Waterloo Wildlife Experiment Station, 10 miles west of Athens, near the junction of State Routes 56 and 356 in Athens County.

Irving I. Dickman, Division of Forestry and Reclamation chief, announced that uniformed personnel will welcome visitors and hand out information sheets at 11 facilities from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

They are Goll Woods in Fulton County; District 3 Headquarters in New Philadelphia, Tuscarawas County; Mohican State Forest, Ashland County; Shawnee and Brush Creek State Forests in Scioto County; Hocking State Forest, Hocking County; Zaleski State Forest, Vinton County; Marietta

Nursery, five miles east of Marietta in Washington County; Green Springs Nursery, a mile west of Green Springs in Sandusky County; and Zanesville Nursery, six miles north of Zanesville on Route 676 in Muskingum County.

Visitors are welcome at the Division's fire towers if they are manned on Open House Day.

THE MIDLAND SPORTSMAN'S CLUB has again joined the Big Ten campaign as a star supporter. The club was also one of the earliest joiners last year. Some of the club's officers this year are Erwin C. St. George Sr., president; James Boyle, vice president; Richard C. Martell, secretary; and Mike Hornick, Frank Poff Jr., Peter Bernardi, Donald C. Scarsella, Anthony Monaco, Clifford C. Chambers and Rodney T. Bear, directors.

THE OHIO-PENNSYLVANIA Bird Dog Association will hold its 15th annual field trials April 26 and 27. The event will be hosted by the Panhandle Pointer and Setter Club at its running grounds on the Witherspoon farm located off old Route 22 about eight miles west of the Penn Lincoln Parkway between Pittsburgh and Weirton. The program will start at 8 a.m. with Tom Perry and Matt Mansch serving as judges. Further information may be obtained by calling Glen Schuch at 412-751-6155.

IN A RECENT SURVEY conducted in the New Hampshire State Park system by the U.S. Forest Service, figures show that most campers were in favor of paying a camping fee for the use of a campground.

The survey showed campers felt their fee was a legitimate means of paying the cost of maintaining public campground facilities. Some campers favored the fee system as a means of minimizing crowded conditions. Most of the campers felt that a charge of two or three dollars was reasonable for a campsite although most felt a higher fee would be in order if accommodations included watersport facilities.

Ex-Resident Reigns As 'Royalty'

A former East Liverpool resident is "royalty" in Florida.

Frank J. Sanford, son of Mrs. Anna Sanford of East Liverpool and Montebello, Calif., and his wife reigned as King Neptune and Queen Athena at the recent "King Neptune Frolics" in Sarasota, an annual 10-day fete.

The couple will preside at various events during the year in the Florida community.

Sanford, sales manager for a storage and transfer firm, went to Florida from LaJolla, Calif. His wife, the former Pat Wind of Babylon, N. Y., is a former fashion model.

They have two children—Michael, 15, and Kandie, 13.

Sanford is president-elect of the frolics, and has served 3 years on the frolic board. He is also a member of Ye Mystic Krewe. The Krewe is composed of 40 men who put on all frolic events. This year marks the first time a Krewe member has become King Neptune, and the first time the King has had his own real beard.

Some of the trips planned this year for the King and Queen include a trip to England on an inaugural flight and trips to Canada and New York and California.

If this describes your home better than you really care to think about—perhaps you should consider a home improvement loan from the First National Bank.

Your home doesn't have to be gloomy. A home improvement loan from First National will give you the cash to brighten it as much as you wish. Gone will be the tendency to describe your home's decorating scheme as: "Early Reign of Terror," or "Evolutionary Confusion."

Crashes Hurt 4 In District

A Columbiana youth was hospitalized and two East Liverpool high school girls and another Columbiana man just recently home from Vietnam were treated and released following two separate highway accidents Friday.

Michael J. Flynn, 20, of Columbiana was in "fair" condition today in Salem City Hospital with neck injuries received in a one-car mishap on Route 14.

David P. Kyser, 21, of Columbiana was treated at the Salem hospital for scalp lacerations and bruises of his right hand and released.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Flynn was driving a 1969 coach, belonging to Kyser, about a mile west of Columbiana when he lost control of the vehicle as he attempted to round a curve and it slid off the north side of the road, hit and went over a guard rail and flipped end over end down a steep embankment, coming to rest in a ditch.

Kyser had purchased the auto a week ago. It was demolished. The accident occurred at 9:45 p. m.

Lawrence D. Miller, 16, of Oakmont was driving a 1962 sedan on St. Clair Ave. about a mile south of Route 170 near Cable's Valu - King Friday at 5:20 p. m. and as he halted his car for a left turn, it was struck in the rear by a 1962 sedan driven by Dale E. Matthews Jr. 16, of Midway Ln.

Linda K. Watson, 17, daughter of Mrs. Hazel Myers, of W. 9th St., a passenger in the Matthews car, suffered contusions of the forehead and abrasions of both knees. She was taken to the City Hospital emergency room then to her family physician for treatment.

Starr Lynn Flesch, 16, daughter of Richard Flesch of the Y. & O. Rd., suffered abrasions of the right ankle, lower leg and knee. She was treated at City Hospital and released.

The front end of the Matthews sedan and the rear end of the Miller auto were demolished, officers said.

Matthews was cited for failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

WHEEL OF FORTUNE?
No, cuts are being made in a passenger tire mold so stainless steel blades, as many as 4,000, can be placed in the mold. When the tire is vulcanized, the steel blades make small incisions in the tire's tread to increase traction and reduce noise level. Watching the operation is a technician at Kelly-Springfield's Maryland plant.

OFTEN A LOT

QUESTION: How do desert animals get enough water?

ANSWER: It is amazing how plants and animals can exist on the very small amounts of water they get in a desert, for all living things need moisture. The answer is that nature has worked out many ingenious ways for desert plants and animals to get and conserve water. The camel doesn't sweat like other animals and so a drink of water lasts him a long time. Deserts are hot, and heat means thirst, so many animals burrow underground during the heat of the day and come out in the cooler evening and nighttime (see picture). Many beetles have a tight round shell which holds moisture in. Hard scales and shells do the same job for desert reptiles. The internal anatomy of many desert creatures is arranged so they can get all the moisture they need from their plant or animal food. Many can go without drinking for weeks and months. Desert plants catch every possible drop during the rare showers and conserve it inside of dry, leathery coverings. Cactus plants are a good example of this. Sharp spines protect such plants from thirsty animals.

Tax Bill 'Poison'

Rhodes Drops Hot Potato

By JOHN R. THOMAS
Review Staff Correspondent
COLUMBUS, Ohio — Any proposed tax legislation should be marked with skull and cross bones for the benefit of those few who might not have learned along the way that tax legislation is political poison.

That's the first lesson learned by most state legislators here. And it certainly has to be assumed that Gov. James A. Rhodes knew about the axiom despite his introduction two weeks ago of the omnibus education bill, better known as the vendor's excise and county income tax bill.

Drops Hot Potato
But last week, Gov. Rhodes found himself holding a hot potato in a very warm kitchen with no visible comfort on the way from a tax-leary 106th General Assembly.

So he withdrew his support from the bill, thus replacing the bones-marked tax legislation bottle. The move — made under the guise of austerity and blamed in part on the federal income surtax — caught the legislature by surprise.

The move was called unprecedented by old-timers, and some of the governor's strongest backers were left dumbfounded that a approximately halfway through the current session, the administration has not presented a clear-cut direction.

The governor, whose political acumen seldom has been questioned, didn't suddenly discover last week what he knew two weeks ago when he introduced the tax-hike bill — that the legislature was not going to enact any new taxes this year.

No Dark Plot Involved
So his withdrawal of administration support for the bill shouldn't have taken anyone too much by surprise. Simply put, there was no dark plot involved in the governor's deciding that he was washing his hands of the tax plan legislation on which his top aides and Finance Director Howard Collier had toiled for nearly three months.

Simply stated, all the rhetoric about austerity and the income tax surcharge aside, the governor decided that he would put the knife to the tax proposals himself rather than let the legislature kill them off.

But the question remains: Why did he ever introduce it in the first place? That he had trouble getting sponsors was no secret, and the leadership in neither house beat his door down to get its hands on the legislation first.

Preview Of Future?
One reason could very well be that he had to justify some-how the Governor's Task Force on Vocational and Technical Education, which reported its conclusions in early January. Rhodes as much as said soon after the introduction of the bill that it did not contain his ideas, but rather those of the task force, which it did.

But if the recommendations of the task force were unrealistic in the political world in January, they were no less so nearly three months later.

A second possible reason he had the bill introduced is that he merely wanted to give the folks a preview of what they eventually will have to face up to in the area of higher taxes.

A Question of Need
In the final analysis, there always was a question of whether there was a need for new taxes immediately to support the governor's vocational and technical programs.

The necessary machinery to implement the ideas has not been set up, and implementation of the task force's report is designed to take 10 years, Collier said.

The timing of the week's events — the governor's call for austerity, Collier's request that the assembly defer for now any consideration of new taxes and House Speaker Charles F. Kurfess' mandatory county income tax — was uncanny.

It was almost as if a leadership vacuum had been created when the governor backed off on his proposal, enabling Kurfess to fill that void with another tax package — a package, by the way, designed to be as palatable as possible to tax-shy public.

Source of Added Income
The municipalities, always jealous of the income tax as a source of income, would find that the Kurfess proposal could affect them directly and result in more revenue.

The city income tax is not really that — it's a payroll tax, and huge sources of income, such as returns on investments, are not touched.

Under the Kurfess bill, the gross adjusted income would be taxed by the county treasurer. Once the treasurer's machinery is set up, Kurfess says, the cities could use the same base for its income tax.

As much as 30 per cent in additional funds could be realized by the cities without raising the percentage of tax, some here are predicting.

The property owners, on the verge of a taxpayers' revolt, would find in many cases a reduction in real estate taxes and might not find an income tax as objectionable as some might think.

Provision for Rebate
And, to make property tax payers happy just before election time, there's a provision calling for a rebate to them on Oct. 30, 1970. The rebate would be necessary since it wouldn't be possible to tell the first year the income tax was in effect just how much property taxes would be reduced.

Know how happy you feel when you discover the government's going to give you back some of the income tax they collected during the year? The feeling of receiving a rebate on property taxes would be similar.

Of course, the property tax rebate would be received just before the 1970 elections for governor, U.S. senator, most state offices, all the state House of Representatives and half of the state Senate.

The fact that it was a Republican legislature that passed the law making the rebates possible would not be forgotten by the politicians.

Real Test For Speaker.
The ability to sell the mandatory county income tax, in the face of the governor's stated opposition to mandatory taxes and the deep-seated antitax feelings by most citizens, will be a real test of Speaker Kurfess.

If he takes to the stump to support the tax proposal, it just might prove to be the exposure he seeks in connection with next year's statewide races.

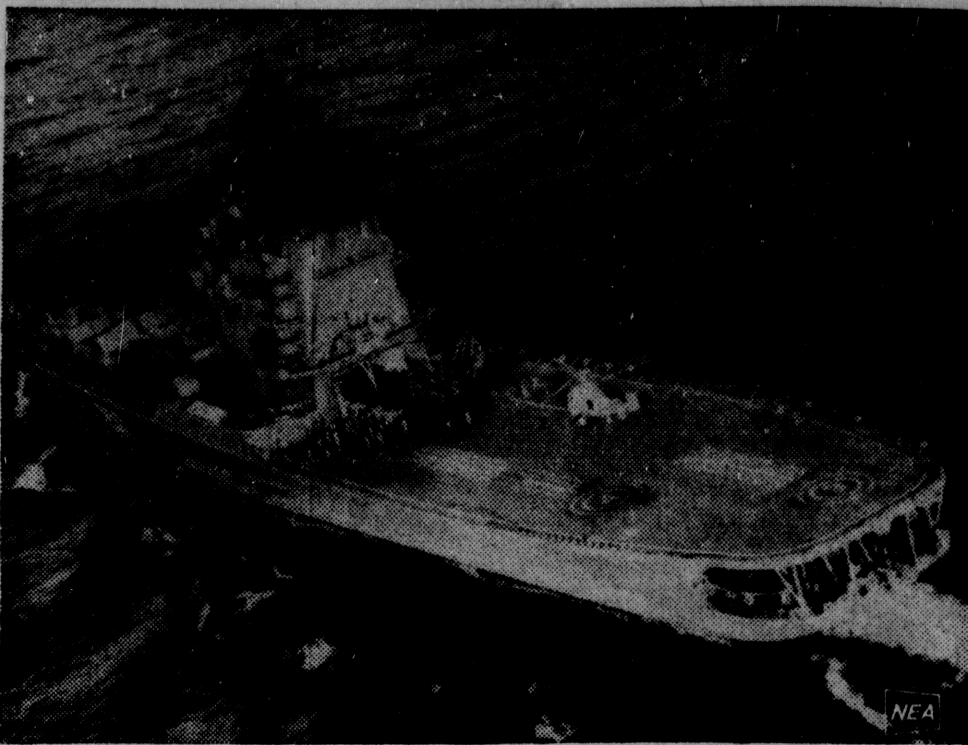

Interesting Contrast
Six days after his call for austerity, Rhodes today dedicates an 18-hole golf course at Hueston Woods State Park in southwestern Ohio.

An announcement of the dedication from the Division of Parks and Recreation tells of the modern glass-walled clubhouse and electric caddies.

Notwithstanding the merits of a state-owned golf course, the contrast in an alleged period of austerity seems interesting.

Old Stamping Ground
FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Near-by Stamping Ground was named for the herds of buffalo which gathered about the spring and traces which centered there. Jesse James' parents were married and lived at Stamping Ground.

SOVIET SUB CHASER prowls the seas. An official Russian source labels this vessel as a helicopter carrier cruiser for chasing submarines. The ship is equipped with special hangars for helicopters, radar stations, hydroacoustic buoys and echo-sounder instruments for detecting an underwater target.

TEST PANEL. Rabbits are used for pyrogen tests of products made from Red Cross plasma which is shipped to laboratories where various fractions are extracted for specialized medical use. The rabbits are injected with samples of the products in tests for purity and safety.

Fines Assessed In Traffic Cases

A Fisher Park driver was fined in Municipal Court Friday on charges he was "in physical control of an auto while under the influence of alcohol."

James Vaughn of Williams Ave. was ordered to pay $100 and costs after his arrest about 11:51 a.m. Thursday on Broadway by police. He had posted a bond of $507.50.

Michael Ryan of 712 Sophia St. was fined $15 and costs for "peeling" tires and found guilty on a second charge of driving without an operator's license.

On the license charge, Judge Samuel M. Chertoff deferred sentencing until a more thorough investigation can be made into Ryan's status as a licensed driver. Bond of $107.50 was continued.

Charles A. Potts of 18th St. Heights, Wellsville, was ordered to pay court costs for driving a high-lift without a "slow-moving vehicle" emblem on the rear.

He was charged by the Ohio Highway Patrol Wednesday on Route 45 about 6 p.m. Lloyd H. Fetty of Fairview Rd., Chester, was sent to the county jail after being fined $50 and costs on an intoxication charge. He was arrested about 1:30 p.m. Thursday on Dresden Ave.

Abel Election Made Official; Narick Undecided On Protest

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Emil Narick, who learned officially he had lost his bid for the presidency of the United Steelworkers union from a reporter, says he hasn't decided whether to protest the vote.

The union international tellers announced Friday that I. W. Abel won re-election as president of the nation's third-largest labor union. The official tally gave Abel 257,651 votes to Narick's 181,122.

Narick, a relatively unknown union lawyer, said he wasn't surprised he lost the Feb. 11 election.

"I heard it during the campaign that Abel was leading," he said, "but I didn't know the exact figure. And people in a position to know said, generally, that Abel was leading."

Narick, who keyed his campaign to bringing control of the union to the rank-and-file, was in his office at the union's Pittsburgh headquarters when the tellers made their announcement to newsmen six floors below.

Narick said he received no official word of his loss until he was contacted by The Associated Press.

He said he plans to review the election results with his associates and backers before deciding if he would use "my right to protest."

Abel could not be reached for comment.

The graying former mill worker now enters his second four-year term as president of the 1.2-million member union. Abel became the first man in union history to unseat an incumbent when he defeated David J. McDonald in 1965.

Walter J. Burke was re-elected secretary-treasurer, polling 285,923 votes to Morros Brummit's 136,999. Joseph P. Molony, who was unopposed as vice president, polled 349,336 votes.

In the race for the presidency of District 15, which stretches from Pittsburgh to Cambria County, Joseph Odorich was declared the winner of incumbent Paul Hilbert.
